

MAN LOST ON ICE RESCUED AFTER WEEK OF HORROR

May Die from Frostbite and Shock.

Potosky, Mich., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Lewis Sweet, 54-year-old Alanson, Mich., fisherman, was in a hospital here tonight near death after a week of superhuman suffering while lost in the frigid ice wastes near Mackinac Straits.

Sweet was given up for lost yesterday when several days' search, aided by airplanes, had failed to find any trace of him. But today Henry Sullivan of Gross Village found him lying exhausted, frost bitten, and delirious in a snow drift near Gross Village. He was brought to this point by dog sled and brought by train to a hospital here, where he whispered the story of his week of tortured wanderings.

A week ago a blizzard struck the bleak Lake Michigan shore off the Straits of Mackinac, where Sweet and two companions were fishing on a ten mile ice field. As the gale mounted all three started through the driving snow to shore.

Two Win to Safety.

Hunter Lee of Potosky and Walter Scott of Alanson won through to the mainland. But when Sweet was within 200 yards of safety the great ice fog broke and carried him back into the fierce lake storm.

He took refuge that night in a shack the fishermen had erected near the center of the ice. But the following morning the furious gale which had driven the ice 25 miles into open water pounded the shanty to pieces and Sweet was left unsheltered in the frigid storm.

That night a shock jarred Sweet's floating island of ice. Surmising that the ice had bumped land, he started out to explore the edges and hours later clambered up the rocky shore of Ile Aux Galets, a lighthouse point known to mariners as Skidagaleis Island.

Finds Food and Shelter.

The lighthouse had been closed for the winter at the close of navigation, but Sweet, though his hands and feet were frozen, managed to break open the door. Inside he found some food and fuel.

Meanwhile Sweet's fishing companions had organized searching parties along the mainland shore and, finding no trace of him, appealed to Gov. Fred W. Green for aid. A plane carrying Capt. G. Olander, state commissioner of public safety, flew from Lansing to Gross Village and two army planes were sent from Selfridge field. The three planes scoured the entire vicinity on Thursday.

Sweet tonight told of his sufferings as he lay on a bed of chairs in the lighthouse and saw the searching airplanes hover near by while he was unable to raise a window or go to the door to signal to them because of his frozen hands and feet.

Treats Own Injuries.

For three days after their visit he fought off death, using his knife to slit the frost blisters on his hands and feet. Finally, on Sunday, with the aid of his hands partly restored, he left the lighthouse and started across the ice for the mainland. He reached the mainland eight miles from Gross Village. He still carried a ten pound trout he had taken before trouble overtook him and had a can of milk in one pocket. He took off his shoes, and his feet swelled so quickly he could not get them back.

HORSE'S FALL ON ICE STARTS BATTLE THAT WILL END IN COURT

Had the faithful old horse that pulled Max Steinborn's potato wagon kept its feet on the icy pavement at California and Robey streets on Monday a court battle would have been avoided.

But the horse went down on the street car track and failed to rise, although Max used the whip and jerked the bit. Mrs. Agnes Michal of Hinsdale, wife of a Chicago attorney, whose love for horses bade her take a hand, was next on the scene. Then came young Oscar Salenger, 1310 South Troy street, who slashed a tire of Mrs. Michal's automobile, and then the police arrived.

"Stop abusing the horse and let me help unhitch it," was what I told the peddler," declared Mrs. Michal yesterday. "He called me a vile name and I slapped him. Then he called me another name and I took the whip and hit him across the shoulders."

Oscar Salenger, a schoolboy, rushed up and cut a tire on my car, and the police came and took us all to the station. This morning I turned the case over to the Illinois Humane society."

So next Wednesday the continued case will be fought in court. The Humane society's attorney will press the cruelty charge, based on Mrs. Michal's complaint against Steinborn. And Steinborn, whose home is at 1636 South Ridgeway avenue, will press his charge of assault and battery against Mrs. Michal.

His big mittens were lost also and his hands and feet froze once more. He found a fishing cabin in which the owner had left a little coffee. He made coffee, but had no food. Resuming his journey, he climbed over the great windrows of ice and fell down a few miles from Gross Village.

Sullivan, who is a fellow fisherman, saw the strange figure staggering about the ice and went to the rescue with his dog team. To his surprise, it was his friend Sweet. He rolled him on to the sled, tied him fast, and brought him to the village. Word was sent to Sweet's wife at Alanson. She and their three children had been mourning him for dead.

Physicians tonight said Sweet might die from shock and frostbite. If he recovers he probably will lose his fingers and toes.

Officials of the Goodrich Line reported last night that their steamer "Alabama" has been stranded in the ice off Muskegon harbor since Monday morning. There are no passengers aboard and officials hope that shifting winds today would break the ice pack enough to allow the boat to enter the harbor. In the other event, it will probably turn back to Grand Haven.

SEEKS PARDON FOR DRY KILLER IN MICHIGAN PEN

Lansing, Mich., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Ernest L. Benway, dry agent killer, convicted in federal court of manslaughter as a result of the shooting in December, 1926, of John Niedemer, a mail carrier, whom he mistook for a rum runner, is a state rather than a federal prisoner, according to a ruling today of Attorney General Wilbur M. Brucker.

The ruling was made at the request of Arthur D. Wood, commissioner of pardons and paroles, as the state had planned to request federal maintenance of Benway in the event he was held to be a federal prisoner. The attorney general found that the proceedings against the dry agent first were instituted by the state, although the case was transferred to the United States court because it involved a federal employe.

Benway was brought to trial and convicted only after a long legal fight. His prison term of six months to three years makes possible a parole April 3.

WIFE SENTENCED; FRAUD CHARGES PROVED FALSE

Mrs. Mae V. Miller, 920 Mason avenue, who charged fraud against her former husband, Herman Miller, inventor and manufacturer, and two lawyers in connection with a divorce decree against her, yesterday was under six months' sentence from Judge Craig A. Hood of the Chicago Heights court because of her allegations. The judge stayed the sentence, however, pending her examination in the psychopathic laboratory. After a complete investigation the judge exonerated Mr. Miller and the attorneys, Arthur W. Coppin and H. C. Mullins.

Cop Collects Taxi Yarns for 8 Months to Get His Man

For the last eight months Police-man James Chap of the Lawndale district has employed his spare time collecting anecdotes from cab drivers. His purpose was revealed last night as he and Jack Liebovitz, a Checker driver of 4122 West 16th street, sat swapping yarns in a restaurant at Crawford and Austin avenues. Liebovitz was relating with glee how he stripped an intoxicated passenger of $180 last May when the policeman showed his star and advised the astonished driver that he might repeat the story in court today. If Liebovitz proves obstinate in court, the policeman's brother, Michael Chap, 2118 West 16th street, will supply the details as complaining witness. Officer Chap declared.

BLAME FAILURE OF BRAKES FOR C. & N. W. WRECK

Emphasizing the danger of the use of wooden coaches in suburban service, a coroner's jury investigating the Chicago and North Western railroad wreck last Saturday, which cost the life of one man and injured thirty others, yesterday returned a verdict finding that the accident was caused by failure of the air brakes to work, probably due to ice in the air line.

"This accident forcibly presents the danger of continued use of wooden coaches in suburban service," the verdict stated. "We urge a definite practical and immediate program for the elimination of wooden coaches and substitution of steel cars on all railroads into Cook county."

Coroner Herman N. Bundesen, who conducted the inquiry, questioned eight employes of the railroad and William Barse, foreman, who was stationed on the rear platform of the train which backed up and struck an outboard suburban train, ripping the wooden coaches open. William Henderson, 445 Maple avenue, Elmhurst, was killed in the wreck.

All of the witnesses testified that the presence of a small plug of ice in the air hose coupling probably stopped the passage of air to the brakes. The ice plug was found lodged in the air hose.

SPRAGUE SHUCKS STUFFED SHIRT IN BRUNKER ROW

Swats 'Political Gougers'—Backs Meyering.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.
Col. A. A. Sprague, commissioner of public works in the Dever regime, severed his name from Albert R. Brunker's civic safety commission yesterday on his return from the east. It was the sequel to the acts of the civic safeties in their Eighth ward fight against Ald. William D. Meyering, a leading anti-Thompsonite in the council. The colonel, who worked with him four years in the city hall, called Meyering "an adherent of industry and guts." He unrolled other remarks last night about "gouging and hitting below the belt" in the sacred name of reform. It was followed by a suggestion that in a endeavor to lift the game of politics to the plane of clean sports, the marquis of Queensbury rules might be well adopted.

No Resignation Required.
Col. Sprague didn't exactly resign from the Brunker executive committee, he explains, for the simple reason that he never joined. He asked that his name be taken off. Last week, the Brunker wallop at Ald. Meyering, had a ticket on it bearing Col. Sprague's name among others, which led to a letter of repudiation from the colonel to the alderman, saying, "I'm for you, Bill, first, last and all the time."

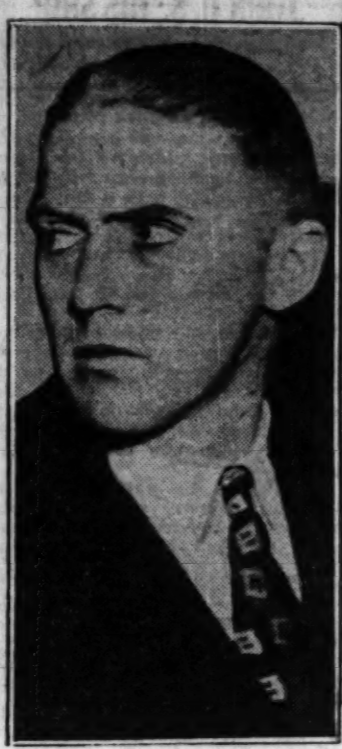

The colonel's brief story was reminiscent of ancient days when "dumplings" and "stuffed shirts" were familiar phrases. "Nothing much happened," said Col. Sprague. "I just asked them to remove my name from the list of vice chairmen. I'm fond of A. R. Brunker and think he means well. But he lacks judgment. I didn't know I was in his organization. My name was used without authority of any sort. Why, the first time I knew my name was on his executive committee was last week, when I was informed over the telephone that I was listed as one of the so-called signers of a statement opposing Ald. Meyering for reelection."

How Names Are Misused.
"Some people seem to be getting into the habit of using names without authority. They'll come up and say, 'That's what you think' and such words as 'a good thing.' You'll perhaps say, 'Sure,' or 'Maybe,' and then the next thing you'll find them saying you are instrumental in trying to bring such and so to pass and it may be the exact opposite of what you actually believe. Frequently men are not particular enough in asking authority for the use of names. "Bunker is well meaning, but his sources of information have been shown very inaccurate and incomplete and immature. Why, the very idea of fighting Ald. Meyering, who has shown guts and industry. He isn't a Calhoun or a Webster. But a Calhoun or a Webster would have a hard time fitting into the city council. "Bill Meyering has been hard working, honest, and fearless," and has made a good record. If the only reward for such things is to be attacked and fought by the very forces which should naturally give support instead of opposition, what is this game coming to?"

"There are rules for every game but politics. Gouging, kicking, hitting below the belt, unpopularity of every kind still survive in politics. How would it be to adopt the marquis of Queensbury rules in politics? But we'd need too many referees."

Joint Statement Issued.
A joint statement was given out last night signed by Mr. Brunker, head of the civic safety commission, and Sigmund Zeisler, head of the Municipal Voters' league. It says both have worked in close contact. "All endorsements of sitting aldermen who are running for reelection," it says, "heretofore given out by the civic safety commission have been concurred in by the M. V. L. "In the case of candidates other than sitting aldermen, the endorsements of the civic safety commission should be understood to be expressions of the commission's judgment that the man so endorsed is the best of the new candidates in his ward."

Explains Stand on Meyering.
"As to the Eighth ward, President Zeisler of the M. V. L., said that in discussing Ald. Meyering with the civic safeties, 'the league expressed its judgment that it ought to be possible for the Eighth ward to elect a man more able and independent than Ald. Meyering.'"

"After a most careful search," he said, "the commission succeeded in finding Edmund A. Miller, recommended originally by a large group of representative business men of the ward and in inducing him to become a candidate."

"The league, however, except in an informal way, never expresses itself except through its executive committee. The latter body has yet to pass judgment on its preference as between Mr. Meyering and Mr. Miller."

'Baby Plane,' 22 Feet Wide, Flies 120 Miles Per Hour

DARMSTADT, Germany, Jan. 29.—The Polytechnic Aviation center today tested a new biplane which, although fitted with an unusually small motor, attained a speed of 120 miles an hour and rose 3,300 feet in three minutes. JUDGE DAVID HAS A GOOD DAY; THE HOUSE IS PACKED Trials and Tribulations of All Kinds Fill the Air.

Judge Joseph E. David's courtroom yesterday resounded to the cries of complainants, the shrieks of defendants, the wails of lawyers, and the admonitions of the judge. A series of strange cases provoked the emotions of the spectators. When adjournment came late in the afternoon, exhausted bailiffs and clerks sank limply into chairs. But there was a general air of satisfaction. It had been one of the court's good days.

First for consideration was the $100,000 allegation of affections suit brought by Harlan Duffey, 4400 Lowe avenue, against Ralph B. Oldham, grandson of a wealthy publisher of Sydney, O. Duffey charged his wife, Anna, had been stolen by Oldham. "I have to get my own meals, press my own clothes and do my own washing," testified Duffey. "My wife still lives in the same house with me but I allow that only for the sake of our four children."

Defense Opens Attack.
Oldham's attorney sought to destroy this mournful picture by charging that Duffey, Oldham and Mrs. Duffey were accustomed to sleep in the same bed. A husband allowing this procedure wasn't entitled to much sympathy, the lawyer asserted. Then Oldham produced letters which he said had been written to him by Duffey demanding money. Judge David exploded. In five minutes the S. R. O. sign had been placed outside the courtroom and the house was a sell-out for the rest of the day. "I will never permit my court to be used for the purpose of blackmail," boomed the judge. "If the jury did return a verdict against the defendant I wouldn't permit it to stand two minutes."

THEY OPEN AN EMPTY BUTCHER SHOP AND "BUY" $155 IN BEEF

Chicago lawn police were searching last night for two alleged confidence men who pried the lock off a store at 2115½ West 67th street, until recently occupied by a butcher shop, then telephone Armour & Co. for beef valued at $155, and gave an alleged bogus check in payment when the meat was delivered.

After accepting the check, William Hauser, 8439 South Paulina street, driver for the packing concern, became suspicious when he saw the two "butchers" drive out of a nearby alley in an automobile containing the carcass of beef. Hauser gave chase in his heavy truck, but was outdistanced by the fugitive car.

Duffey's attorney then elected to withdraw his suit.
Michaline Versus Stanley.
There was placed upon trial the suit of Michaline Koplewski versus Stanley Balzekas, 4028 Archer avenue. The court was informed that Stanley had built a house which encroached an inch and a half on Michaline's property and the latter asked that her neighbor be ejected from the premises or be ordered to pay $15,000 damages. "What'll you pay?" said the judge to Stanley, and "What'll you take?" to Michaline. Much argument and protestation and bargaining followed, but an offer of $1,000 by Stanley and a demand of $1,200 by Michaline was finally settled upon.

"Toss a coin," suggested the court. "Toss it in open court in violation of all the gambling laws of the state. We've got to get rid of these little cases and get down to something important."

Neither Stanley nor Michaline possessed the true sporting instinct, however, and a verdict followed which ordered Stanley to move off Michaline's inch and a half of property. "That means nothing," the judge comforted Stanley. "Come back in a few months and you're entitled to another trial."

This One Stops the Judge.
Attorney John McCabe rushed into court, hoarsely demanding a writ of habeas corpus.
"My client, Tony Elifalla, was first charged with the murder of his wife's nephew," said Attorney McCabe. "The charge was changed to disorderly conduct but while he was in jail his wife died and he was accused of her murder. Then he was accused of bigamy although his only wife had died and later a woman in Crosby, Minn., had him indicted for child abandonment although she wasn't his wife."

"When he got out of jail, he was beat up by five Mexicans. He was sent back to jail on the child abandonment charge. After that—"
It proved too much for Judge David. "Enough for one day," he decided.

JURY IMPASSE DELAYS VERDICT IN HANSON CASE

Locked Up for Night; Ask Instructions.

car before it got to him. He said he did not point blank at the front of the car when it was fifty feet away, firing towards him. He said he fired two more shots as it passed and two after it was past.

On cross-examination he said he stopped firing when the car lurched off the roadside and stopped, with Hanson, desperately wounded, at the wheel.

Did He Duty, Is Defense.

The government claims Jennings was justified in firing on Hanson. Mr. Templeton told the jury that he was "indeed told" and "in duty bound" to shoot. And he proceeded to back his contention by the evidence of Jennings and Christ Dew, his partner in the shooting—the only two men who knew what happened, Hanson being dead.

Mr. Knowles presented evidence to the effect that Jennings and Dew practically ambushed Hanson and that they shot into his car recklessly and without justification or provocation. Mr. Knowles proved that both men had their uniforms hidden, that Jennings particularly was dressed in blue denim overalls, a knee length blue corduroy coat and a blue sweater. He contended that Hanson was justified in believing the two coast guardsmen robbers. Hanson had not a drop of liquor in his car.

While the jury was excused for dinner last evening Mr. Templeton, the United States attorney, and Seymour Lowman, assistant secretary of the treasury in charge of prohibition enforcement, sat together in the hotel dining room. Elmina is Mr. Lowman's home town. He is Republican boss of Chemung county, and he has been closely watching this case.

Judge's Instructions Lengthy.

Judge Hazel, instructing the jury, talked steadily for an hour and fifteen minutes. The instructions, while dealing specifically with the killing of Hanson, in the larger sense dealt with the conditions and circumstances under which jury agents may legally shoot at automobiles.

In part, Judge Hazel said:

"Your duty and mine at this time is to protect the public from unlawful attacks by coast guardsmen or revenue employes, even though engaged in governmental service, and particularly to safeguard human life and mete out punishment in accordance with the law of this state when, in your judgment, that law has been disregarded."

U. S. Service No Excuse.

"The manner in which Jacob Hanson lost his life, including all the surrounding circumstances, must carefully be considered and weighed by you before reaching the conclusion that the defendant on trial is guilty or innocent, especially as there are involved questions relating on the one hand to the faithful discharge of his duties, and on the other, to his disregard of them."

"The defendant is not entitled to any better or different treatment in this court. You are not to accord him the slightest favoritism because of his service to the government, or because he is defended by the United States attorney."

"The state has given prima facie evidence consisting of shooting at the automobile in which Jacob Hanson was riding on the night in question, and asserts that the proofs show felonious assault and culpable negligence. In consequence of which the assailed Hanson died; that he was injured by a pistol shot fired by the defendant Jennings at the automobile in which he was riding is admitted, but the claim on the part of the defendant is that the firing was excusable on the discharge of the coast guard duty; and the personal injuries sustained, it is asserted, constituted a misdemeanor."

Cites Federal Statute.

"The witness Dew's right to stop the vehicle driven on the Lewiston road by Hanson cannot seriously be questioned; he had the right under the statute to inspect the vehicle, and use all necessary force to compel obedience. It required no suspicion of a smuggling operation under way, or any probable cause for believing an offense had been committed, as the people contend, to enforce stopping the car for examination. It was in the line of duty to stop vehicles coming along the road, regardless of any suspicion that he might entertain in mind."

"The reckless shooting of a pistol or gun at a person suspected of crime is illegal. If an officer—and this applies to a coast guardman on duty—seeks to arrest a person without a warrant, he must use great care and caution not to injure the person whom he is seeking to apprehend. He has no right to shoot where one fails to stop his car on request or where the occupant is merely suspected of a violation of the Volstead act. Violations of national prohibition by transportation of intoxicating liquor are misdemeanors and not felonies."

"In this case we are dealing with the asserted claims of the defendant that reasonable grounds existed warranting the suspicion that a crime was being committed, and that Hanson sought, by fleeing, to evade the search of his car."

Grounds No Justification.

"I instruct you that before firing Jennings was required to have reasonable cause to suspect that the tariff laws were being violated. His suspicion must have been based on facts and circumstances, not on mere guesswork that Hanson knew, or had reason to know, that an officer had halted him for inspection of his car. Before resorting to extreme measures—firing his revolver at the car to stop it—Jennings must have had in mind facts from which a reasonably prudent man would believe that the signals fired by Dew were understood by Hanson and, consequently, that he was aware that a federal officer was endeavoring to make inspection of his car."

"If the circumstances show to your satisfaction that Hanson knew, or had reason to know, that an officer had signaled him to stop and that instead of stopping he hastened on,

Michigan High Court Gets Woman 'Liquor Lifer's' Case

Lansing, Mich., Jan. 29.—(Special.) Formal filing of the long deferred petition for a writ of error in the case of Mrs. Etta Mae Miller, Lansing grandmother and the state's only woman "liquor lifer," brought Michigan's habitual criminal act before the Supreme court today for the second time.

The petition, prepared by Mrs. Miller's counsel, Senator Seymour Person and Claude Marshall, lists some 50 assignments of error but does not attack the constitutionality of the act under which the woman was sentenced, as that issue is considered to have been settled by the high tribunal in upholding the sentence of Fred Palm, Lansing "pint of gin lifer."

Under the criminal code's provisions it is necessary for the trial judge to go over the petition for writ of error in instances of appeals, and that procedure is understood to have delayed the filing of the Miller plea; Judge C. B. Collinswood, who gave Mrs. Miller her mandatory life sentence in the Detroit House of Correction following her conviction by a jury as a habitual criminal, signed the petition after striking out one provision, it was said.

One Error Claimed.

This claimed error related to the court's alleged act in revoking the probation of two state witnesses in the presence of the jury. The witnesses, John Haynes and Emmett Clark, were claimed to have made the purchase of liquor from Mrs. Miller, which resulted in her fourth conviction.

giving the reasonable idea that he would not stop or that he was fleeing from the vigilance of Officer Dew, and there were no other means available for stopping the car to enable Jennings to perform his duties, then, I instruct you that firing at the automobile, not to shoot Hanson, for he was not detected committing a crime, but to cripple the car, was excusable.

Must Weigh Testimony.

"Now it becomes necessary that you should critically examine the testimony in this case for the purpose of ascertaining whether reasonable grounds existed for the claimed belief or not."

"If you believe the testimony of Dew and Jennings, you may conclude that Jennings had reasonable grounds to suspect that Hanson was engaged in a violation. Firing at the car to cripple it was reasonably justified. Indeed in such case Jennings was required to use such force as seemed to him necessary."

"Since Hanson did not stop, the question of fact is sharply submitted to you as to whether Hanson, by his conduct, did not give rise to the supposition that he was escaping from inspection, and to the belief that he was violating the tariff laws."

"It is a question of major importance to ascertain the belief Jennings entertained, in the emergency, if it was an emergency."

Hanson No Wrong-Doer.

"Hanson was not a wrong-doer; no smuggled goods or intoxicating liquors were discovered in his car or in his possession, and it is hard to account for his omission to comply with the halting and signal of shots fired in the air by Dew, if you believe Dew, and also failing to see Jennings, if you believe Jennings."

"Counsel for the defendant makes the deduction that Hanson must have seen the officials, that he must have heard the signals that were fired in the air, and yet ungarbled he continued on."

"The state prosecutor argues in favor of an inference that Hanson did not do so; that he did not give any reasonable grounds to suspect that he was a violator of the law."

"But to continue about Hanson's failure to stop. It is hard to account for it. It is hard to satisfy one's mind why, in view of the situation, he omitted looking and listening. He is dead. He cannot inform us."

"If you believe that Jennings became excited—and I think he said something of that nature—as the car approached him, or after he had fired the first shot and in the immediate emergency, he sent a bullet higher than his first shot, and was at the same instant forced aside by the car, and there was no intention to injure Hanson; but the purpose was only to disable the car, then you may conclude that the shot through the windshield, the bullet entering Hanson's head, was an accident, and he is not guilty of the crime charged."

"During the trial it was suggested that these men were concealed, that they had planned to conceal themselves until an automobile came near, and then come out suddenly and fire into it. Of course, if you believe such to be the fact, then Jennings was culpably negligent and he should be convicted as charged in the indictment."

Debated in Legislature.

While the Supreme justices are considering the petition for appeal reverberations of the case are being heard in the other divisions of the state government. Legislators, now in session, are considering several amendments to the habitual criminal act which would remove liquor law violations from the category of felonies, thus precluding the possibility of a mandatory life sentence for four convictions on prohibition charges. One such measure would change a dry law violation to a misdemeanor, another would provide a maximum sentence of 10 to 15 years for four time prohibition lawbreakers, and still another would classify felonies and make the maximum sentence apply only to major crimes.

In the pardon and paroles department a petition for clemency, filed before Mrs. Miller's final conviction as a habitual criminal, is being considered.

MRS. F. J. LOESCH DOES HER BIT AS ELECTION JUDGE

Mrs. Frank J. Loesch, wife of the veteran battler against crime, graft and corruption, believes in doing her bit also. She was discovered yesterday serving as a judge of election, registering new voters at the polling place at the Drake hotel, in the 42d ward.

"I just think people ought to practice what they preach," she explained. "This work is vitally important, though it may not seem so to the average person. We can talk about getting people out to vote, but if they are not registered honestly, and on election day if the votes are not counted honestly, then the work of good citizens is nullified. That's why we people ought to be anxious to do these duties."

The precinct in which Mrs. Loesch officiates as judge is one of the largest in the city. It includes residents of the hotels and apartment dwellings along Lake Shore drive and East Walton place, from Michigan avenue to the lake.

Two Identified as Robbers of South Shore View Hotel

Ralph Eberley, 30 years old, 3047 East 79th street, and Mack McLeod, 18 years old, 3060 East 79th street, were identified yesterday as the pair who last October robbed the South Shore View hotel, 7100 South Shore drive, of $289 in currency and a $1,000 bond after trying up the night clerk, Peter H. Connelly. Eberley and McLeod confessed and implicated Walter Slaney, 21 years old, 2267 East 31st place, former bellboy at the hotel.

$24,000,000 DRY FUND DEADLOCKS HOUSE FACTIONS

Battle to Finish Set for Tomorrow.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Washington, D. C., Jan. 29.—(Special.)—Forty-five minutes of parliamentary maneuvers around the $24,000,000 prohibition enforcement fund proposal in the house today set the stage for a real battle Thursday to determine whether the administration or the Anti-Saloon league is to dictate future Volstead policies and appropriations.

The league has served notice upon the house that it expects the huge additional allowance to be approved in spite of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon's disapproval.

Republican leaders will force the showdown when they present a special rule to send the deficiency supply bill with the $24,000,000 rider added by the senate to a conference committee. This plan was decided upon after repeated efforts today to secure unanimous consent for the appointment of conferees failed. The house adjourned in confusion when the deadlock could not be broken.

Southern Dries Block Plan.

The southern dries, led by Representative John Garner (Dem., Tex.), fighting for a roll call vote on the amendment, refused to agree to the appointment of conferees by unanimous consent unless the conferees were definitely instructed either to accept the senate amendment or bring it and the McKellar tax refund amendment back to the house for a separate vote.

Throughout the brief but spirited debate Republican dries, resenting the Anti-Saloon league's interference in behalf of what is construed to be a Democratic move to embarrass both President Coolidge and President Elect Hoover, opposed the southern dries and ultra-wets.

Representative Louis S. Cramton (Rep., Mich.), heretofore regarded as one of the Anti-Saloon league's house spokesmen, joined Representative W. R. Wood (Rep., Ind.), ranking majority member of the appropriations committee, in denouncing the $24,000,000 proposal as purely a political move by southern senators and house mem-

CAPTAIN FRIED TO TOUR U. S.; HIS SHIP WILL SAIL TODAY

New York, Jan. 29.—(Special.)—On demand of the people of the United States, the liner America will sail for Europe tomorrow with a new master in charge.

Capt. George Fried has been relieved temporarily of his command and Chief Officer Harry Manning will be on the bridge, the United States line announced today.

Capt. Fried, in answer to thousands of telegrams received by the line, will travel over the country, visiting the largest cities, to let the citizens hear at first hand the thrilling rescue by the America crew of those aboard the Florida, which was lost at sea recently.

Such was the announcement of George S. Mabee, assistant general manager of the line, at a luncheon given in honor of Capt. Fried and Chief Officer Manning at the Bankers club, at noon today.

When Mr. Manning, the 33 year old chief officer, takes the 22,000 ton liner down the bay tomorrow he will be the youngest skipper ever to take out a trans-Atlantic liner of the tonnage of the America.

Members who, after supporting Al Smith in the last presidential race, must reassess dry constituencies.

Debate Waxes Hot.

Representative Cramton challenged the Texan to agree to unanimous consent and force the issue by proposing instructions.

The gentleman from Michigan has been the great dry leader of the house, and so heralded to the country, interrupted Representative J. T. Byrns (Dem., Tenn.). "Will the gentleman from Michigan move to instruct the conferees?"

"I am not one of those who are away in the spending of the people's money by a wave of political hysteria," retorted Mr. Cramton.

"Well, if the distinguished Michigan dry does not make such a motion, this wet will," shouted Representative F. H. La Guardia (Rep., N. Y.).

In the midst of the confusion Representative John Q. Tilson (Rep., Conn.), the Republican floor leader, moved for adjournment, and in a division demanded by Mr. Garner, the motion was carried by a vote of 195 to 93.

STEEL WORKER HURT BY FALL.

Harvey Moller, 25 years old, a structural steel worker on the construction job at the Evanston high school, where his father, H. C. Moller, 205 North Oak Park avenue, Oak Park, is foreman, sustained a broken foot and broken wrist yesterday when he fell forty feet from a steel beam almost at his father's feet.

In the Spirit of Chicago

¶ In the early days of the fathers and grandfathers of Chicagoans who are now in middle life, or beyond, the indomitable will and spirit of Chicago met the jeers and scorn of other cities then much larger.

¶ That this city on the prairies should aspire to be one of the greatest cities in the world was thought a rare exhibition of presumption, even as there are those today who seek to ridicule the very evident intention of Chicago to surpass all other cities in size, in beauty and in industrial achievement.

¶ Countless pages of history and biography contain the proofs that greatness in the making must breast its way to its destiny through the obstacles of a world of skepticism. And amid the dire prophecies of those who say Chicago is overbuilt the sound of new building is heard on every side and new structures daily rise higher and higher above the edifices which yesterday were the summit of builders' daring.

¶ Meanwhile, many business institutions of Chicago, possessing the elements of greatness, have attained world-wide acclaim. Of necessity this is so, for a city is great only in the greatness of its people and their enterprises.

¶ In its particular field Henrici's has achieved a position of pre-eminence typical of the Chicago spirit. Nor is it by chance or any fortunate circumstance of location, that people (mostly the same people) daily throng its doors, as you yourself may well see if you will come this noon and enjoy the satisfaction of a Henrici luncheon. Why not Henrici's for luncheon today?

DRY AGENTS TRUE TO NAME; DRINK 53 HIGHBALLS

And All in an Evening,
One Testifies in Court.

New York, Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Drinking fifty-three Scotch highballs and straight ryes in one evening constituted part of the work of Jacob Erskilla and James White, prohibition agents, before they finally concluded an evidence gathering party at the Mimic club, in West 52d street, it was learned today before Federal Judge Walter Thomas and jury.

Three employees of the club are on trial, charged with maintaining a common nuisance under the prohibition law. The grilling qualifications of the agents was brought out when Erskilla was cross-examined by William Riese, attorney representing Albert Gaskin, Thomas Sullivan, and Samuel Levine, the trio on trial.

Visited Several Places.
"Before you went to the Mimic club did you visit any other places?" asked Riese.

"Yes," responded Erskilla. "White and myself stopped at several other places."

"How about drinking? Did you have many drinks?"
"Yes," pressed Riese.

"I should say about forty-three," said Erskilla, quite innocently. "Then you went to the Mimic club?"

"We had about ten more and then went home from there early in the morning."

Bought Drinks for Others.
Erskilla, who posed as a big butter and egg man from the west, was asked if he and his partner bought drinks for any one else on their rounds.

His reply was that he had bought for almost "anybody" who cared to drink. They bought drinks for bartenders, he said. They bought liquor for entertainers. At the club, one of them met, the "Countess Leona" as called herself, got many highballs, he witness declared.

Not content with their fifty-three drinks at $1 each they bought a pint of whiskey when they left the club and paid $10 for it, Erskilla testified. Another agent, John J. Mitchell,

SMOKE FROM SUBURBS BLOWN INTO CHICAGO OFFERS NEW PROBLEM

Smoke wafted into Chicago from the manufacturing districts in suburban territory has created a problem which is not Chicago's alone, according to a statement made yesterday by Frank A. Chambers, head of the new smoke abatement bureau. To correct this, he has prepared a plan to secure the cooperation of the smoke abatement authorities in the surrounding suburbs.

"The brisk and variable winds which we experience here carry smoke a considerable distance," Mr. Chambers said. "The smoke pall from the large manufacturing districts in Cicero and in the southern end of the county is, at times, carried over the city. With a brisk west wind, a smoke pall can be detected over the loop though the smoke observers report that little of it is caused by loop stacks."

Mr. Chambers' plan calls for the creation of a metropolitan smoke abatement area to secure the banishment of the smoke evil for all. The smoke, after it becomes suspended in the atmosphere, he pointed out, does not recognize city limits. With the suburbs fighting smoke also this condition could be corrected.

Enforcement of the new smoke ordinance is going ahead as rapidly as men can be found to serve as smoke observers, Mr. Chambers said. These ten places cannot be filled until the civil service commission has certified the positions.

testified he was taken to the club by "Sonny" Rand, "a man who brings in the 'suckers' and gets 25 per cent of the check."

His entrée at the Mimic, he said, got him admittance to the High Hat club.

EFFICIENCY AID IN NEW REFORM BY EMMERSON

Turns Back to the Code
Lowden Started.

BY PARKE BROWN.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Another big change instituted by the Emerson administration was disclosed today when William H. Malone, chairman of the state tax commission, walked into the office of Garrett Kinney, director of finance, and recognized him as his superior officer.

Under the Small regime the tax commission operated as a separate entity, responsible only to the governor. This was true although the law plainly makes it a part of the department of finance. But the indications today were that for the next four years it will at least be under the watchful eye of Director Kinney.

This is considered important not

THE DAY IN SPRINGFIELD

Emmerson administration disclosed decision to return to basis of Lowden administrative code ignored by Small in several important instances.

SENATE.

President Pro-tem Carlson took gavel during several weeks absence of Lieut. Gov. Sterling in Florida.

RESOLUTIONS: By Searcy, for the creation of a committee to urge preference for disabled service men in state jobs.

NEW BILLS: By Dunlap, to regulate automobile headlights and spot lights; by Finn, uniform text book bills; by Mills, to tax trucks and buses using hard roads and to require adequate toilet facilities on motor buses operating over routes of more than 50 miles.

HOUSE.

Named three members to confer with State's Attorney Swanson on feasibility of sanitary district pay roll inquiry only because of this single instance in the one department but because it is understood as establishing an administration policy of compelling a return to the spirit of the Lowden administrative code. It is expected to affect several important branches of the state organization, including supervision of the utilities commission by the director of trade and commerce.

concurrent with special grand jury investigation.

Speaker Eganahan announced his committee with Roger D. Little of Champaign as majority floor leader.

BILLS ADVANCED: Chicago tax reassessment bills sent to third reading.

NEW BILLS: By Dixon, to permit sterilization of inebriate inmates of state institutions; by McCarthy, to prevent sale of milk or other commodity at more than double the price received by producers; by Bederman, to raise homestead exemptions from $1,000 to $2,000 for head of family; by Thon, to permit removal of streets from control of park boards; by Tice, to make biennial appropriation of $304,000 to attorney general's office; by Walker, to permit cities and villages to tax and regulate chain stores.

RESOLUTION: by Thon, to authorize appointment of joint committee of house and senate to study Cook county tax situation and pass on all new tax legislation.

Leo H. Lowe, within whose responsibility it is placed by the code.

Result of Lowden Reform.

When Frank O. Lowden was inaugurated in 1916 he found an executive department consisting of a myriad of commissions whose operations were marked by divided responsibility and slow uncertain operation.

He put through the legislature what now is known as the administrative code creating nine departments headed by directors, who were personally responsible for the affairs assigned to their jurisdiction. The change was hailed as the biggest advance in state affairs in generations.

Len Small added two more departments to the Lowden plan, but the changes were not considered by students of government such as the errors as his disruption of the line of authority leading up to the directors. In several instances he preferred to do business directly with a subordinate body, such as a division or a commission, and ignored the department head.

Lowe to Get Added Duty.

With today's facts in the record, it is believed that similar recognition of the authority of Director of Trade and Commerce Lowe over the affairs of the Illinois commerce commission, commonly known as the utilities commission, will be established at the latest with the appointment of its new membership. The code makes him responsible for its expenditures and the question of how much of a voice in its other affairs will be accorded him probably will be thrashed out by the lawyers.

This attitude of the administration also is expected to have some effect on the division of highways, which is subordinate to the department of public works. The small custom was to send appointees directly to the division, but when Harry H. Cleveland of Rock Island assumes the directorship on Friday it is believed he will have complete control of all its affairs, including the hiring and firing of all employees. In other departments similar changes are expected.

The returns from Gov. Emmerson's retrenchment order—his letter directing all department heads to lay off all deadwood on their pay rolls—had not started coming in today. But it developed that both Director Lowe and Director Kinney already had dismissed a number of employees they considered unnecessary.

INTRODUCES BILL TO LIMIT MILK DEALERS' PROFIT

Frank A. McCarthy, state representative of Elgin, Ill., in the heart of the Chicago dairy district, introduced a resolution in the house at Springfield yesterday designed to aid farmers in getting their share of the money paid by consumers for dairy products.

The resolution would prohibit the sale of any farm product, including milk, for more than twice what the producer got for it originally.

Under the provisions of the McCarthy proposal Chicago milk dealers would be violating it with farm and retail prices as they are today. With dairy farmers getting $2.50 a hundred pounds for milk, dealers would not be permitted to sell milk for more than $5 a hundred. At the present retail price city distributors are getting $6.51 a hundred, or $1.51 a hundred more than the maximum allowed in the proposed law. This is figured on the basis of 46 1/2 quarts in each one hundred pounds of milk.

THE RECORD - BREAKING NEW NASH "400"

More can't be said for the New NASH "400" than this -

Just look at the outstanding features
NASH offers that other cars don't.....

All as regular equipment at no extra cost

Twin-Ignition Motor

For more power and speed with greater economy of gasoline than possible with single ignition. At every speed this new Nash Twin-Ignition motor delivers wonderful performance. Instant, alert get-away and surpassing smoothness through the full range of power and speed.

Bijur Centralized Chassis Lubrication

Press a pedal and 11 points, including all spring shackles, are oiled automatically and instantly under 100 pounds pressure. Saves both your time and money. One of the greatest features of convenience and economy ever presented to motorists.

Houdaille Shock Absorbers

These Houdailles are especially engineered by Nash to the new "400" with outboard mounting, new to the industry and exclusive to Nash. They are double-acting—softening the action of the springs both when they are depressed and on the rebound and giving you fullest riding ease.

Front and Rear Bumpers

These are the finest bumpers built, exceptionally beautiful and strong. They are integrally designed by Nash to harmonize perfectly with the new "400" Salon body design. As regular equipment at no extra cost, they contribute to the remarkably low Nash price, delivered, in this city.

World's Easiest Driver Control

We challenge the world on this new "400" feature. Nowhere is there another car so marvelously easy to steer and turn and park, or with such effortless clutch action as the new Nash "400". Nash is far ahead of the industry in ease of driver control.

7-Bearing Crankshaft

This is the world's finest practice—expensive but worth it—because of finer performance than is possible with fewer bearings. Each connecting rod is given maximum support by big bearings on both sides. This is the modern type of engineering.

Refreshing Comfort

The deep, soft cushions, form-fitted to the body, the wide seats, the roominess of the Nash "400" interior, all help to bring you to the end of every ride refreshed beyond anything in your whole motor car experience. On the longest trip you rest as you ride.

Costly Car Interior Finish

Costly upholstery and luxurious craftsmanship distinguish the new Nash "400" interiors at once from competitive cars. You can see the difference the instant you open the door. Nash "400" interior finish is matched only by the very highest-priced cars.

PACIFISTS TO OMIT C
BILL FILIB

Showdown Vote
Assured Next

BY ARTHUR CRAW
[Chicago Tribune Staff
Washington, D. C., Jan. 29.]—A showdown vote will fight in the senate today.
Pacifist senators are being urged to vote against the Hoover bill, which would give the president the right to suspend the writ of habeas corpus in times of war or rebellion. The bill is expected to pass, but pacifist senators are being urged to vote against it.

Final Vote by We
It is expected that a vote will be reached on Tuesday by that time less than remain before the end of congress. If the pacifist senators vote against the bill, the conference committee of the house and senate will be forced to make a final decision on the bill. The threat of a night session is a possibility, but it is not certain.

PACIFISTS AGREE TO OMIT CRUISER BILL FILIBUSTER

Showdown Vote in Senate Assured Next Week.

BY ARTHUR CRAWFORD.
(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
Washington, D. C., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—A showdown in the cruiser bill fight in the senate became assured today.

Pacifist senators abandoned filibustering tactics and joined in a unanimous consent agreement for a limited session of debate.

Meanwhile it was made known at the White House that if the cruiser bill is passed even without a time clause amendment, the President will ask for an appropriation for an immediate start in the building program.

The senate agreement becomes effective next Monday. Beginning at noon on that day no senator may speak more than 30 minutes on the bill nor more than 30 minutes on any amendment. After 4 o'clock on the same day a similar 10 minute limitation will be applied. No new amendment may be offered after that time.

Final Vote by Wednesday.

It is expected that a final vote will be reached on Tuesday or Wednesday, by that time less than a month will remain before the end of the present session. If the pacifists succeed in convincing amendments to the house, the senate will have to wait until the next session for a final vote.

The threat of a night session brought opposition senators into line. Senator Frederick Hale (Rep., Me.), chairman of the naval affairs committee, had served notice of his intention to introduce on night sessions, commencing tonight. Recognizing that he would be able to wear them out by this point, the pacifist senators consented to the agreement for limiting debate, or managed to gain a few days by selling off the effective date until next week.

As matters now stand, Senator Hale and other preparedness advocates believe they will be able to defeat his amendments, including the amendment favored by President Coolidge for the elimination of the clause fixing dates for the commencement of construction.

Few Support President's Plan.

Despite the inference drawn from a telegram of Herbert Hoover to President Coolidge that the President also favors the elimination of the time clause, the President seems to have picked up little support in senate, except from those known to have pacifist tendencies.

The Hoover telegram figured in the debate. Senator Smith W.

The Day in Congress

SENATE.
An agreement was reached to limit debate on the cruiser bill, beginning next Monday.

Senator S. W. Brookhart (Rep., Ia.), radical opponent of the cruiser bill, poked fun at the regulars who are not supporting President Coolidge's proposal for the elimination of the time clause.

The senate immigration committee failed to take action on a bill for postponement of the national origins provision of the immigration law but arranged for a hearing next Monday.

HOUSE.
A row over the $24,000,000 new prohibition enforcement fund, as added to the deficiency appropriation bill in the senate, developed when the question of sending the bill to conference was taken up in the house.

The house rules committee approved a special rule to send the appropriation bill to conference tomorrow.

Effect of prohibition was evident when only five witnesses appeared before the house ways and means committee on the tariff schedule relating to wines and spirits.

Brookhart (Rep., Ia.) poked fun at the Republican regulars who are failing to stand by the President in the time clause controversy. Two of the "little navy group" of senators offered amendments.

Another defense of President Coolidge's position with respect to the time clause was made at the White House. The President regards the authorization for the construction of fifteen new cruisers as necessary even though agreements may be reached with other nations for the limitation of armament.

DISBAR NEGRO G.O.P. CHAIRMAN OVER PATRONAGE

Jackson, Miss., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—S. D. Redmond, Negro attorney of Jackson and chairman of the Republican state executive committee, was disbarred, and R. Redmond, his son, was suspended by a decree handed down by Chancellor V. J. Stricker in Hinds County Chancery court today.

Redmond was one of the chief figures in the recent federal patronage trials here.

DICTATOR NIPS SPANISH REVOLT BY QUICK DRIVE

Sends Planes and Troops
Against Mutineers.

MADRID, Jan. 29.—(AP)—Prompt measures by the government of Premier Primo de Rivera today nipped in the bud another military revolt against the dictatorship. Although the rebellion was planned to break out simultaneously throughout Spain and did crop out in several of the larger cities of the south, its only foothold was gained in the provincial capital of Ciudad Real.

A regiment of field artillery there rolled out their cannon so as to command the roads and approaches of the walled city. The government sent a squadron of airplanes over the city to drop proclamations promising that only the leaders would be punished if the soldiers surrendered before serious fighting occurred.

Meanwhile several squadrons of cavalry clattered out of the ancient city of Alcala and a large force of the civil guards, heavily armed, proceeded south in motor buses. Gen. Orgaz led an infantry brigade from Madrid. The premier announced tonight that Ciudad Real at midnight and would take charge of the situation.

Mutineers Stop All Trains. During their brief control of the city the mutineers prevented all trains from entering and leaving Ciudad Real. They occupied the barracks of the gendarmes. Ciudad Real is about 100 miles south of Madrid. The revolt also was reported to have shown itself at Valencia, Barcelona and Coruna.

REVOLT FAILS

A plot designed to engulf most of the larger cities of Spain in revolution was smashed within twenty-four hours by Dictator Primo de Rivera yesterday. The rebels gained a serious foothold in Ciudad Real, 100 miles from Madrid, when a regiment of artillery fortified the railway junction and stopped all trains. Planes and troops were sent against the rebels.

without gaining headway in any of these cities, however.

Primo de Rivera, in announcing to the assembly that the government had the situation in hand, this afternoon declared that "what took place was only the mad effort of a single reg-ment, which the government will suppress shortly without neglecting to take precautionary measures to avoid possible repetitions."

A few hours later the premier again appeared before the assembly to assure it that the revolt in Ciudad Real was at an end and that tranquillity had been restored throughout the country. He attributed the prompt quashing of the disorders to the zeal of local authorities, the vigilance of the police, the solid discipline and patriotism of the military institutions and the sagacity of the country.

In contrast to some similar occasion when the government of Spain has been threatened, the government throughout the tense day announced to the assembly and the press the facts of the disturbance.

Censorship Clipped on Report.

PARIS, Jan. 29.—According to a heavily censored dispatch reaching Paris at midnight the mutiny of an artilleryman in Ciudad Real is practically quelled and communication have been restored while comparative calm reigns in the rest of the country.

It is claimed the rebel movement was a complete failure in Madrid; Seville, Valencia, Barcelona and Saragosa.

Following several meetings early this evening Premier Primo de Rivera established a hole proof censorship which announces that it will not permit any messages to reach the border except those approved by the government.

REVEAL FORGERY PLOT TO RUIN SOVIET FINANCES

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

BERLIN, Jan. 29.—The discovery of several tons of forged Russian chevron notes (the new Russian monetary unit) has revealed what the German police believe to be a Fascist plot against the Russian Soviets. It is indicated that Gen. Ludendorff's former right hand general, Max Hoffmann, played an active part in the plot. The plotters believed that by smuggling tons of forged notes into Russia they could ruin the Soviet finances and overthrow the present Red rule.

Gen. Hoffmann is said to have sought the aid of the oil magnate, Sir Henri Deterding, director of the Royal Dutch Oil company. Before his plans could materialize, Hoffmann died, but his work was carried on.

The Russian embassy has sent a protest to the German government, asking that stringent measures be taken against the plotters.

GERMAN BANKERS KILL SELVES AS STOCKS GO DOWN

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

BERLIN, Jan. 29.—American investors into the German automobile market and the consequent collapse of German stocks led to a double suicide of bankers today. News of the tragedy plunged the stock exchange to the lowest level of this year.

Max Dukas, one of the three partners of the bank of Kats and Wohlauer, had bought $250,000 worth of German automobile stocks and found when settlement day came that they had diminished in value by two-thirds. Karl Boettcher, Dukas' partner, who participated in the speculations, committed suicide during the night, leaving word that Dukas was to blame.

When Dukas was told of this he shot himself.

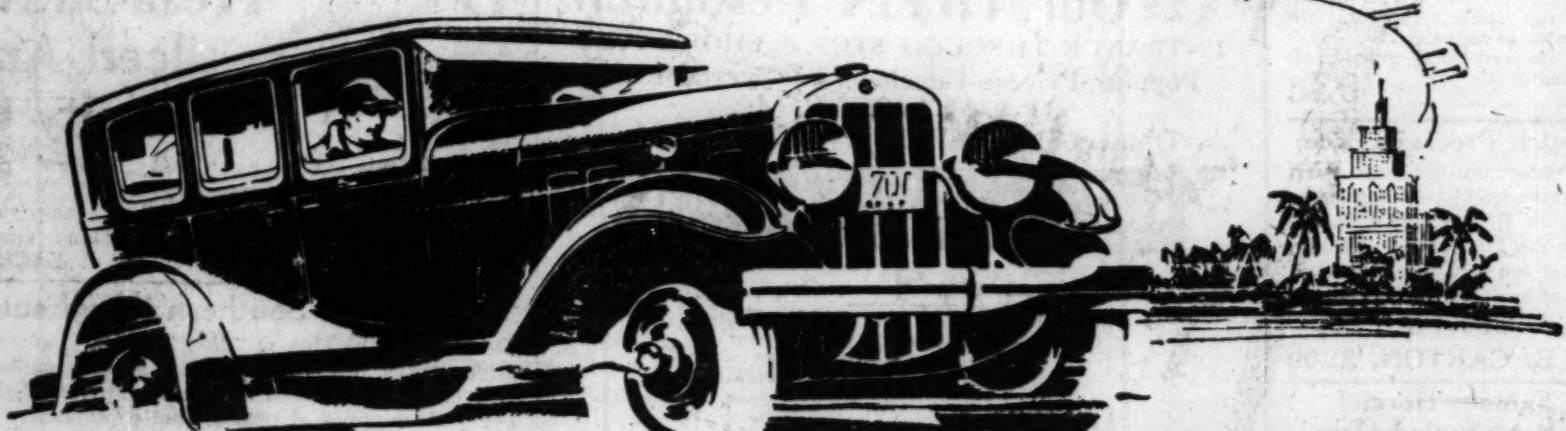

The slump in the German automobile stocks was largely due to the reports that the German Opel company was being absorbed by the American firm General Motors.

AIRPLANE FEEL beats fastest train by 1 HOUR-50 MINUTES*

TO the long list of brilliant Franklin road triumphs—including the famous transcontinental, round-trip record, the New York to Chicago speed record and numerous mountain climbs—another astonishing record is now added. Cannon Ball Baker has just flashed from New York to Miami in 31 hours, 10 minutes in a stock Franklin Sedan! 1541 miles with an average speed of 49.44 miles an hour. Clipping 7 hours, 57 minutes off the previous motor-car speed record between these two points. Beating the fastest crack train by 1 hour, 50 minutes.

These facts are amazing! They are the natural result of the most progressive thing in automobile design today—air-cooling—which has revolutionized aircraft motors and has given the new 1929 Franklin performance of championship order. Because of the powerful, swift, smooth performance—the extremely quiet, quick second gear getaway of the new Hy-Flex transmission—the supreme riding comfort and effortless control, Franklin has the driving feel of an airplane. Drive this differently performing car. Experience that thrilling airplane feel today.

ROCKEFELLER IN STEWART FIGHT

Claim Enough Proxies for a Victory.

New York, Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Charles Evans Hughes, former secretary of state, has been retained by the D. Rockefeller Jr. interests to handle the legal end of the fight being waged against Col. Robert W. Stewart, present chairman of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, it was announced today.

The move comes as a climax to the statement by Thomas M. Debevoise, Rockefeller's personal representative, that the Rockefeller proxy committee now has sufficient votes in hand to elect Col. Stewart at the March 7 stockholders' meeting.

The committee also said that Henry H. Harbuck of Indianapolis had been retained as counsel for the proxy committee in Indiana.

Wants Victory Both Ways.

Mr. Rockefeller's intention is that Col. Stewart shall be defeated by the vote of individual stockholders against him, as well as by the vote of shareholders. It has been pointed out that about 90 per cent of the total stock may be voted in the election March 7, which would require at least 90 per cent for a majority.

Mr. Debevoise has declined to say what percentage of proxies is now on the Rockefeller side. Mr. Rockefeller and members of his family, with various institutions to which they have money, hold only 14.9 per cent. Corporation law provides that a proxy may be turned over to another holder at any time before a meeting.

HELP BY STEWART FORCES.

Col. Robert W. Stewart's associates yesterday issued a statement holding that it was apparent that the Rockefeller side of victory in the proxy battle was not well grounded.

"T. M. Debevoise has acquired the right of issuing daily claims of victory," read the statement. "The activity of Rockefeller agents throughout the country, including the retention of additional counsel, belie those claims. There is only one purpose in the claims. They want it to appear that the band wagon is turning down their way. They are not getting as many to follow that band wagon as they expected."

"It is apparent their statements are being broadcast in an effort to get large stockholders that they expect to get but have failed. Mr. Debevoise's statement that they 'hope' to constitute the present dividend policy is answered. The dividend policy of this company is not determined by them. It is determined by earn-

ARENDT SHIFTS STOLEN WATCH CHARGE; IS FREED

Abe Arendt, one time owner of a 22d street vice resort, changed from defendant to prosecuting witness yesterday in Judge Peter H. Schwab's Municipal court. Abe was arrested some months ago for possessing several valuable wrist watches, which had been stolen.

When the case against Arendt was called Abe asked for a warrant for Joe Firestone, 35 years old, of the Davis hotel. He claimed that Firestone had given him the stolen property which he did not know was stolen. As soon as Arendt signed the complaints against Firestone Assistant State's Attorney Charles Dougherty agreed to nolle prosequere the charge against him.

The discovery that Arendt had the stolen watches was made just prior to Christmas, when he had sold some of them to city hall employees.

Chicago, Jan. 28.—The Northwestern Christian Advocate, the organ of the Methodist church, dares openly to accuse the Roman Catholic church of maintaining an official staff in Washington. This avows of the falsehoods cast upon the Catholics during the last presidential race.

At no time in the entire history of the United States has the Roman church ever interfered, directly or indirectly, in any possible way with the inner workings of the government. If such a thing should happen, the whole country would be up in arms. Now, when the Methodist church seeks to dictate to the rulers of our government, the people, with a few exceptions, take it passively if not willingly.

The Protestant church always believed in absolute separation of church and state.

How ironical it is that a Protestant sect should establish a lobby in Washington. O, but the country must listen to these righteous pacifist ministers and their anti-boose talks or it will be just as bad for our chances of heaven!

FOR TAXATION OF CHURCHES.

Chicago, Jan. 28.—Your editorial response to that of the Northwestern Christian Advocate is not alone timely but a masterpiece of fairness as well. They detect Tim TARBURN for the simple reason that you are fearless in publishing the truth.

I have always been led to believe that in the United States the church and state were absolutely separate, but the obstructed religious lobbying at Washington has convinced me of my error in the matter.

Since they insist on commercializing their various religions by openly entering politics, I would suggest they be taxed in all fairness similar to other legitimate industries.

Chicago, Jan. 28.—I wonder if Fred Brown, in the Michigan state prison, reads a Bible on Sunday?

I wonder if the sponsor of the Michigan life for a pint law thinks of him when his family assembles for Sunday dinner after church?

I wonder if the dear brethren who tune over the radio all day Sunday are it is almost impossible to get anything in between, pray for him, that may become a prohibition Christian?

THE STRAIGHT-EIGHT SWIMMING HOLE

"Come on in..the water's fine!"

This (by way of illustration) is the Straight Eight swimming hole—favorite spot of the engineer; enjoyed by many manufacturers; and now patronized in a big way by the public at large.

The Straight Eight idea has been around for nearly ten years now. The first American-built car of this type appeared in 1920.

It excited tremendous talk by the public—new and far-reaching study by the engineer.

At first nothing much happened, because the price was around $7,000. The Straight Eight was a wonderfully fine picture, but no one had a place to hang.

Since 1924, however, prices have been tremendously lowered and manufacturers have been coming in one by one—until now the Straight Eight has permanent and powerful sponsorship.

At the week's automobile show, 43 manufacturers are represented. Twenty-four make Eights —twenty-one of which are Straight Eights!

Marmon, one of the largest producers of the Straight Eight, did not invent the Straight Eight idea. More importantly, it harnessed the idea and made it serve the people in a broader and more useful way.

G. M. Williams and his associates several years ago saw in the Straight Eight the third really great development of the automobile.

Just as the Four made the automobile dependable, and the Six made it powerful, so now was the Straight Eight to add the great factors of smoothness and effortless operation.

As early as 1924, Colonel Howard C. Marmon and his staff of engineers were in possession of the most important Straight Eight findings. They took as their task this fundamental goal: to make the Straight Eight a simple, economical and long-lived car for all to own.

By such study and concentration, Marmon, perhaps more than any other single factor, has made possible the Straight Eight of moderate cost—truly fulfilling the mission of serving the greatest possible number of people with advanced yet tried and true transportation.

As a result of these things, a new and important leadership has been won by Marmon—all built around the Straight Eight.

For 1929, Marmon has a Straight Eight program of a scope never before attempted by any other manufacturer.

In the meantime Marmon can confidently say to the man who drives and the man who sells (there are quite a number here this week):

"Come on in—the water's fine!"

Marmon now builds: The New Series 68—$1465; and the New Series 78—$1965. Prices at factory. De luxe equipment extra.

AURORA & ELGIN RIDERS TO FIGHT INCREASED FARE

Plan to Ask Rehearing by Commerce Commission.

Higher passenger rates on the Chicago, Aurora and Elgin electric line, effective last Wednesday, were being protested yesterday by commuters who plan to appeal to the Illinois commerce commission against the increase. Attorney Charles W. Hadley of Wheaton, who appeared before the commission in opposition to the increase in fares, said a petition would be filed for a rehearing.

A comparison of the new and old rates indicates that in some instances the increase is more than 20 per cent.

The following table was prepared showing the old and new rates for 60 ride tickets between Chicago and suburban towns:

	Old rate	New rate
Elmhurst	$ 8.40	$ 9.50
Lombard	8.00	10.50
Glen Ellyn	8.50	11.50
Wheaton	10.00	12.50
St. Charles	12.48	16.00
Aurora	15.00	18.00
Elgin	12.50	16.00

In some instances, between suburban points there were decreases, but the order of the commerce commission explains that the new rates are intended to establish the following fares per mile: Between Chicago and points east of Elmhurst, 1.2 cents; between Chicago and Elmhurst and Villa Park, 1.1 cents; between Chicago and Lombard, 1.05 cents; between Chicago and Wheaton and Glen Ellyn, 1 cent; between Chicago and Warrenville and Lakeview and West Chicago, .9 cent; with a minimum of $7 per month for any sixty ride ticket.

Second Increase in Two Years.

Since this is the second increase granted the Aurora and Elgin line in less than two years the commuters believe there is merit in their complaint. The commission's order specifically admits that the electric line's new rates are higher than those of competing steam roads but says that a loss of business is not expected because of that fact. For single ride tickets the new rate of 3.5 cents per mile is allowed, the same rate operating on the steam roads under an injunction from a federal court.

In justifying this increase, following an increase in fares, effective on June 23, 1922, the commission discusses the valuation of the road and rates of return. In the 1922 hearing the commission's engineer valued the physical property of the road at $10, 222,000 but the company's testimony showed a capital investment of $14,216,000. The commission used $10,000,000 as a rate base for testing the proposed passenger fare figures.

Claim $14,126,000 Value.

In the present proceeding the company offered evidence showing investment in road and equipment of $14,126,000. The commission had an appraisal of the cost of reproduction, as of July 31, 1922, and the figure given was $12,675,464, with a reconstruction program in progress to expend $2,500,000 over five years.

The record contained the statement that the net operating revenues for the twelve months ended on July 31, 1922, were $399,045. There were additions through nonoperating income and deduction of taxes assignable to railway operations, and income from leased power facilities, and the gross income, according to the company's books, applicable to return, interest, amortization, and miscellaneous debits, amounted to $427,810, with no allowance for depreciation on ways and structures but an allowance of $53,000 for depreciation of equipment.

Point to Wage Increase.

An increase of wages of 1 cent an hour to all employees except office, tracks and roadway workers was mentioned. The commission says there was available for returns for the year ended on July 31, 1922, $223,616, which is equivalent to 2.53 per cent on the assumed rate base. The company has additional revenues amounting to $93,860, which would bring the rate to 2.34 per cent, according to the road, but the commission's engineer estimates the return at 2.4 per cent, on the assumed rate base valuation.

The commission says the increase in rates is necessary to give the public the service to which it is entitled, and it is essential that the company earn sufficient moneys so that new capital may be invested in its properties. The commission declares that the electric line has expended $1,800,000, which has not been financed through the issuance of stocks, bonds, or long term securities, "and which, under proper earning conditions, it is entitled to capitalize."

GIRL, 7, WINS 11 DAY BREATH FIGHT; WILL LIVE

Perry, Kas., Jan. 29.—(AP)—Margaret Brown, seven year old school girl, breathed naturally tonight for the first time in 11 days. Administration of oxygen which has kept her alive since Jan. 18, ended today for a time when her lungs were drained of fluid resulting from a complication following pneumonia. Her physicians said she was "a great deal better," but that oxygen probably would be administered occasionally for several days until she gained strength.

A Younger Generation and the KIMBALL PIANO

THE tastes of every younger generation, for a long span of years, have been reflected in Kimball piano styles, ever since the first piano was designed that bore the Kimball name.

But never was this illustrated to a greater degree than in the new Kimball instruments now on display—which express in every line of exterior modeling the spirit of modern artistic trends.

Even more important is the scientific perfection of the interior structure, in which the ingenuity of modern craftsmanship has developed an unexcelled clarity and grandeur of tone.

Come and hear these new instruments. Your own taste, rather than any printed words, will give you a full appreciation of their tonal beauty and grace of design. You should see our varied styles in period grands and in classic modern grands. There are several new models in uprights and player pianos that we would like to show you—when ever you find it convenient to come.

The Kimball "One Price" assures the same full, generous value to every purchaser. Partial payments, if desired.

CITIZEN TRANSIT GROUP TO START HEARINGS TODAY

Enabling Legislation Will Be First Topic.

Preparations for handling the citizens and representative of civic organizations who are expected to appear at the public hearing on Chicago's transit problems today were made by the citizens' settlement committee yesterday. Seventeen organizations and individuals have notified the committee that they wish to be heard at the session in Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson's courtroom this morning.

No statement was given out by the committee after its meeting in Judge Wilkerson's chambers, but it was reported that one of the difficulties confronting the members is the large number of persons wishing to be heard. The procedure to be followed in the hearings, it was said, will depend largely on today's developments.

To Discuss Enabling Laws.

Statements at the hearing are to be limited to the question of enabling legislation deemed necessary to solve the local transit problem. It was said. Even with this limitation, it is believed that the committee may have to fix a time limit for each group.

The seventeen groups and individuals who have notified the citizens' committee that they wish to be heard are the Chicago Real Estate Board, City Club of Chicago, Suburban Council, Chicago West Town chamber of commerce, Greater South Side chamber of commerce, Central Uptown Chicago association, Northwest Side Commercial association, Evanston chamber of commerce, John Haynard Harlan, attorney for the P. J. Linman group, Francis X. Busch, William Hughes Clarke, Abel Davis, Sam B. Fleager, A. W. Ellert, Chicago Subway Engineering company, Milton J. Foreman, and David Bluford.

Some May Get Later Hearing.

Some of the groups and individuals, it was said, are more interested in certain phases of a transit ordinance than in the enabling legislation. For this reason it is believed that they may be given a hearing at a later session of the committee in order to hasten an agreement on what legislation is necessary.

The committee, which was appointed by Judge Wilkerson, is headed by James Simpson. The other members are Col. A. A. Sprague, John A. Carroll, Joseph R. Noel, and C. M. Thompson, all Chicagoans with the exception of the latter who is dean of the college of commerce at the University of Illinois.

ARMY MAY ORDER 100 INSTEAD OF 7 NEW LIGHT TANKS

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
Washington, D. C., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Members of the senate appropriation committee are considering the advisability of adding an amendment to the annual army supply bill which would authorize the war department to enter into contract authorizations for the purchase of 100 modern light tanks. The bill at present carries funds for but seven of the speedy new machines.

Testimony given before the committee by Assistant Secretary of War Charles B. Robbins is responsible for the move to increase the number. Should his recommendations be adopted, the army supply bill would permit the contract for 100 light tanks for delivery during the next five years.

Mr. Robbins, in testimony before the senate committee and earlier before a subcommittee of the house, did not urge the addition of funds to the present bill. He urged that in the interests of economy the army be allowed to contract for the 100 tanks, a few to be delivered each year. According to him, $16,000 could be saved on each tank if 100 tanks were purchased by contract.

"When we buy five tanks," he said, "the rolls are set up to make the armor for the five tanks and they charge for setting them up and dismantling them. If they were making armor for 100 tanks they would have only one setting up and one dismantling, and the result would be an enormous saving in the cost. It seems to me poor business to authorize these tanks piecemeal."

Washington, D. C., Jan. 29.—(AP)—Representative Charles Manly Steadman of North Carolina today was eighty-eight years old. He is the only confederate veteran left in congress.

He entered the southern army as a private, served under Lee, was promoted to be major, was wounded three times, and surrendered at Appomattox.

INVITATION to Automobile Dealers

Franklin offers the exclusive advantages of the air-cooled motor... the type of power plant that is amazing the world by its phenomenal victories on the road and in the air.

No other automobile line offers similar profit possibilities. Franklin dealers have just closed a profitable year and 1929 gives every promise of being the most successful in Franklin's 26-year history.

Prices now range as much as $600 lower than formerly. The market for Franklin automobiles has been multiplied 2½ times. Many additional outlets in the mid-west are now being closed with far-sighted, progressive dealers.

Any visiting dealers interested in franchise possibilities are invited to meet Franklin executives in

NO MATTER what your individual desires and requirements may be there is a Packard Eight designed and built for you. For Packard now offers three distinct series, each car a "Packard" in every sense of that word which has such a priceless meaning wherever fine cars are owned; each a Straight-Eight, finer in engineering and design than any car Packard has ever built before; but each series differing in size, purpose and price.

The qualifications of Packard ownership are ever the same—an appreciation of fine work, of beauty and distinction in design, and a desire to own only the best—to travel first class in comfort and luxury.

The price of a Packard Eight is a factor to the thinking man. For he knows and can prove that he may own a Packard through the years at no greater cost than other cars of lesser quality and reputation. Packard owners keep their cars. The Packard is built to last—to serve enjoyably and luxuriously for years. And Packard does not tempt its patrons to turn in their cars, while still mechanically excellent, for "new models" of radically changed appearance. Packard beauty endures.

We invite you to come and see these three truly remarkable new lines, at the Show or at our own salesrooms. After you have driven the model of your choice you will understand the reason for the marked and general trend to Packard ownership.

The Packard Standard Eight is priced from $2435 to $2835—the Custom Eight from $3175 to $3850—and the Eight De Luxe from $4585 to $5985—at the factory. Individual custom cars are also available to order on the De Luxe chassis.

See the special displays of Packard Eights at 333 North Michigan Avenue, the Drake Salon, the Coliseum, the Edgewater Beach Hotel or at our showrooms, all during Automobile Show week.

ENVOY UPSETS TRIBUNE FLIGHT TO AFGHANISTAN

"Country Too Dangerous for Foreigners."

BY LARRY RUE.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
TEHERAN, Persia, Jan. 29.—The plans of THE TRIBUNE correspondent to fly to Kandahar, Afghanistan, tomorrow, were upset at the eleventh hour by the Afghan ambassador here. He said the situation in his country is such that responsible authorities in the country would suppose he had lost his mind if he permitted any foreigner to enter the country.

"The entire nation is mobilizing; all they are thinking of is fight, and if you and your pilot have a forced landing they undoubtedly will kill you both," he said.

The correspondent argued in vain with him, offering to assume all the risks and even go without a visit if permission was given for the plane to land, which is a necessary formality with the Persian government.

Cold Weather Delays War.

So far the extreme cold and snow are preventing open hostilities, but as soon as former King Amanullah Khan is able to make his way over the passes between Kandahar to Kabul it is expected he will begin closing in on Kabul against King Habibullah Khan, the "water boy" who forced his abdication and then deposed his brother, Ismail.

Amanullah rescinded his abdication in opposition from the citizens of Kabul, although Habibullah is master of the city, he is boycotted by all the officials of the old government. The smaller functionaries are carrying on under his leadership.

Reliable sources say the Russian-Afghan frontier is the scene of con-considerable military preparation. At least numerous Turcomen, believed to belong to the red army, are filtering in. Practically the entire north region has asserted its loyalty to Amanullah and is organizing to assist in the recapture of Kabul.

Scoffs at British Suspicion. Afghanistan is the key position between Russia and India. Both England and Russia are watching developments closely, each fearing the other is trying to secure a strategic position.

tion. The Afghan ambassador here scouted the British suspicion that Amanullah signed a secret treaty with Russia when in Moscow nine months ago.

"I was minister of foreign affairs at that time," he said, "and the only treaties signed were with Persia and Turkey, both against no one."

Report All Envoys Quit Kabul.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

LONDON, Jan. 29.—Although the foreign office in London continues to deny that there is at present any intention of removing the British legation staff from Kabul, messages from New Delhi, India, say all foreign legations in Kabul have been evacuated and that the British legation staff was the last to leave.

Two royal air force planes left Peshawar for Kabul today. One of these made a forced landing en route and has not been heard of since. The other reached Kabul but did not return to Peshawar.

Afghanistan's fourth king within a week, Ali Ahmad Jan, is reported to have defeated Habibullah's army near Kabul today. He is receiving the support of the Shinwari and Ghilzai tribes.

CHINA DEMANDS RIGHT TO CLOSE OWN OPIUM DENS

GENEVA, Jan. 29.—(AP)—The opium evil was made the occasion today for another plea by China for the right to police its own territory, irrespective of the nationality of offenders.

Wang King-ky, Chinese minister to Belgium and chief representative of his country at Geneva, delivered a fresh attack upon European and Japanese connection with the opium evil, answering protests by saying that he was fighting for "real Chinese freedom."

The program which Mr. Wang was trying to get the committee to adopt was summed up by him last week in five specific proposals. He asked that the powers concerned revoke all authorization for opium smoking in their far eastern possessions and that foreign nationals engaged in illicit drug traffic in China should be deprived of their rights to hearings before the consuls of their own governments.

He also suggested that Chinese police be allowed to operate in all foreign concessions and leased territories. He proposed that there should be world-wide limitation of the manufacture of narcotic drugs, based on medical and scientific requirements, and that the coming investigation of the opium situation be widened so as to include the manufacture of narcotics in all countries, as well as the use of them in the orient.

Japan Accepts New Tariff Schedule.

TOKYO, Jan. 29.—(Wednesday).—The privy council today approved acceptance of the new Chinese tariff schedule effective on Feb. 1. The sanction of the emperor is expected later today, after which the Japanese chargé d'affaires at Peking (Peking) will be ordered to sign the agreement. Japan was the last of the powers to hold out against Chinese tariff autonomy.

90% of your ailments start here
-- and here is where yeast works

Why doctors of 5 countries urge yeast to keep intestines clean

ENGLAND

SIR W. ARBUTHNOT LANE, BART. C. B., England's great surgeon, says: "Constipation is the curse of civilization... A shortage of Vitamin B is responsible for this complaint. The deficiency is most readily made up by the addition of fresh yeast."

GERMANY

DR. KURT HENTIUS, Professor in the world-famous University of Berlin; former physician to German royalty. He says: "Yeast has won its place in internal medication. In constipation, yeast promotes peristalsis (intestinal action) and easy elimination."

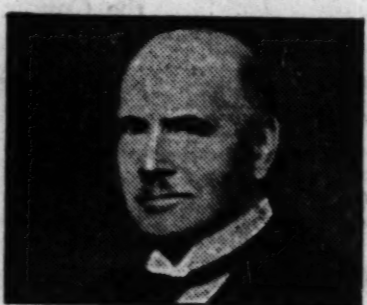

DOCTORS now agree that 90% of all ills start in an unclean intestinal tract—in the backing up of poisons from clogging food wastes.

To combat constipation, regulate digestion, and clear blotchy complexions, leading physicians in 5 countries advocate fresh yeast. Likewise, in a recent survey in the United States, half the doctors reporting said they prescribed fresh yeast.

Fleischmann's Yeast is fresh. Unlike dried or killed yeast, it contains millions of living, active yeast plants which combat harmful poisons, purify the system as they pass through the intestine daily. Appetite and digestion improve; skin is restored to lovely freshness.

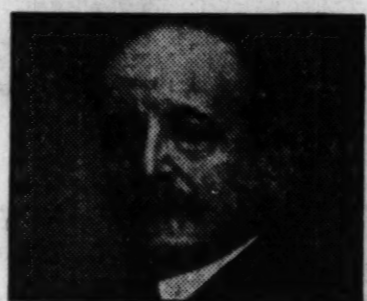

Eat 3 cakes daily, one before or between meals, plain or in water, cold or hot (not scalding). To benefit fully you must eat it regularly and over a sufficient period. At all grocers and many leading cafeterias, lunch counters and soda fountains. Buy 2 or 3 days' supply at a time; keep in a cool, dry place.

AUSTRIA

PROF. DR. ADOLF CLUSS, international authority on nutrition; Professor, Hochschule für Bodenkultur, Vienna; member, International Institute of Agriculture, Rome. He states: "Yeast helps nutrition... promotes health and physical and mental well-being."

FRANCE

DR. GASTON LYON, Laureate, Academy of Medicine; an outstanding figure in French medical world. He states: "In France yeast is in current use. It reduces intestinal fermentation and regulates the functioning of the intestine."

DENMARK

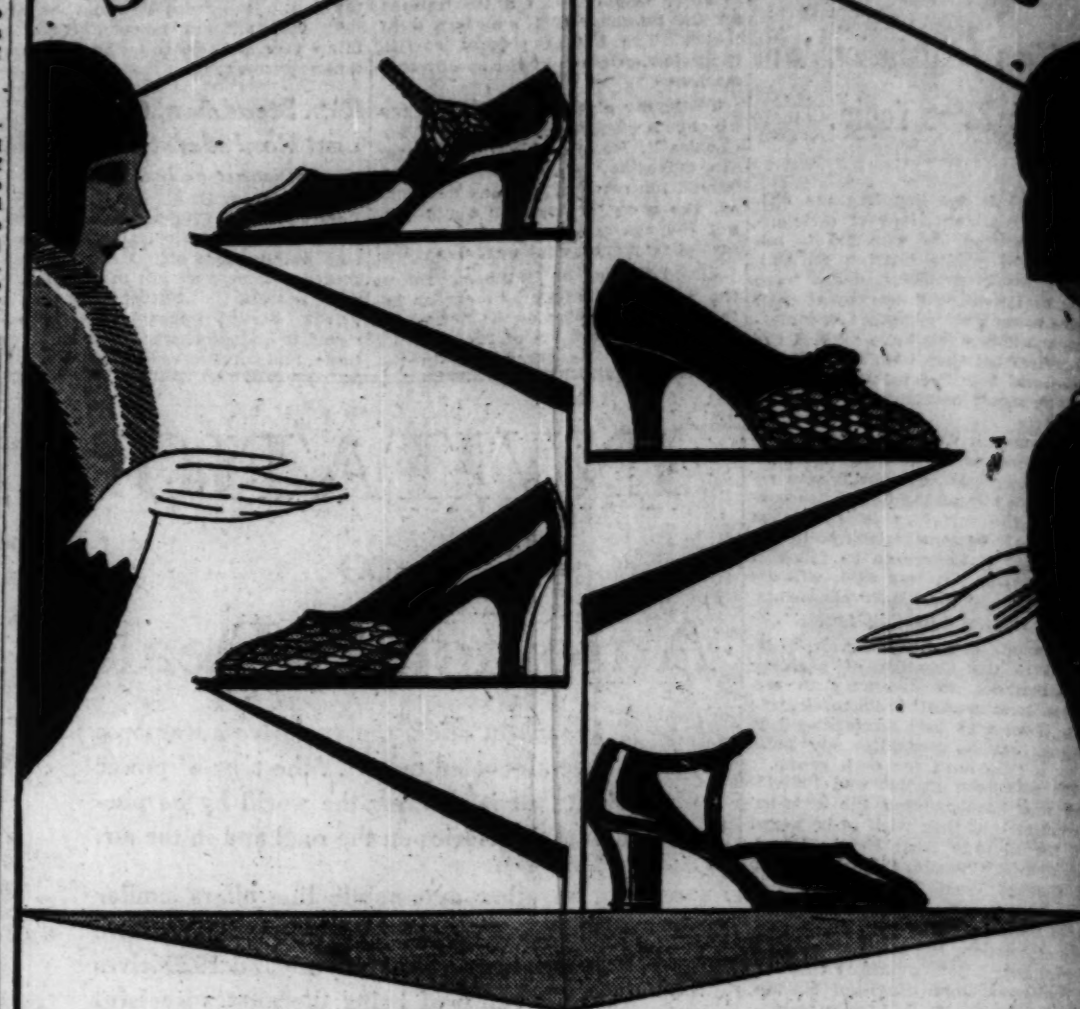

DR. ERIK REGSTRUP, brilliant Danish doctor specializing in dietetics. He says: "Nutrition problems show that sufficient vitamins are necessary for a wholesome diet. Fresh yeast contains Vitamin B in greater amount than any other easily obtainable food."

ALSACE PUT ON FEET BY FRANCE, POINCARE SAYS

Plaints of Autonomists Met with Figures.

BY HENRY WALES.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

PARIS, Jan. 29.—Premier Raymond Poincare today defended the French policy in Alsace-Lorraine with such overwhelming force that the autonomists, who have been airing their grievances for the last three days, were reduced to being thoroughly routed. While deputies suffered violent headaches from the thundering procession of statistics which he trotted out, the premier showed how the recovery of provinces had become ineluctably better off than they were under German rule.

His caustic reply will be continued on Thursday by which time M. Poincare promises to make important pronouncements regarding the separatist campaign. He intends to bring his counterattack to a rousing end by asking for a vote of confidence on the Alsace-Lorraine question—a vote which it is estimated will be accorded him by five-sixths of the chamber.

"Better off than before war," Alsace and Lorraine are better off financially, industrially, commercially, agriculturally, administratively, and in every other way than before the war," M. Poincare told the deputies, "and nothing justifies the abominable campaign which has been instituted against the government."

"Do not forget that we took over the provinces when they were on the verge of financial catastrophe, and we redeemed the Alsatian market at the rate of one franc twenty-five centimes, an act which cost us two billion francs. Our first task was to put the mines and agricultural lands into condition again and reconstruct the homes after the war. That cost us another two billion francs."

"I request the deputies from Alsace and from Lorraine who have loyalty to repeat that to their electors, adding that if the two provinces had been autonomous they would have had none of these advantages."

Only a Few Unemployed.

Shaking his finger at the wincing autonomists the premier asserted that a third of the land in the provinces was not being cultivated in 1919 and that numerous factories were closed, while today that land and those factories were yielding capacity production. He said the interests of Alsace and Lorraine had been safeguarded through commercial agreements with Germany.

"And," continued the premier dramatically, "you might bear in mind that recent figures showed that there are exactly 113 unemployed in Alsace."

During the early part of the session, F. Fabiet, deputy from the Lower Rhine, had wound up the autonomists' tale of woe by protesting against the suppression of the autonomist newspapers and demanding that both French and German be taught in the schools. He said that the autonomists were neither separatists nor pro-Germans, but felt the present French rule resembled a dictatorship.

To Resist FLU

It is particularly important at this time to keep your throat and nose in normal condition. There's no better precaution against inflammation than gargling with gentle, cleansing Glyco Thymoline. Especially, have the children and those of the family who must encounter crowds—gargle their throats and spray their noses with Glyco Thymoline. Glyco Thymoline is pleasant-tasting. Children like its agreeable taste. Doctors used Glyco Thymoline successfully in the influenza epidemic of 1918.

Identify the genuine by the salmon-colored cap and the deep cherry red liquid. At all drug stores.

BEATEN BEFORE OTHER WOMEN, WIFE CHARGES

Mrs. Lewis H. Whitney Sues for Divorce.

Lewis H. Whitney, son of Charles P. Whitney, member of the insurance firm of Critchell, Miller, Whitney & Barbour, 175 West Jackson boulevard, was named defendant in a suit for divorce filed yesterday in the Superior court by Mrs. Velda C. Whitney, 849

Windsor avenue. Mrs. Whitney charged drunkenness and cruelty. Whiskey at $25 a quart caused her husband's downfall, Mrs. Whitney declared. She asserted that ever since her marriage in 1915 he had been cruel to her and had been intoxicated continually. For months at a time he never drew a sober breath, she stated in her bill, and on New Year's eve, 1928, he brought home two strange women and three men, dragging her from her bed in their presence and beating her.

Aided by Father, She Charges. Although Whitney has a large income, he persuaded her to devise all her property, worth approximately $37,000, to him, the wife's suit declared. He often brought other women to their home at 923 Hinman avenue, Evanston, she asserted, and in all these actions she charged he was given the moral support of his father, who lives at 404 Church street, Evanston.

Mrs. Whitney indicated that she would ask for large alimony. The bill cited her rearing in "a home surrounded with culture" and her education at Ferry Hall, Lake Forest, as reasons why she should be supported in luxury by her husband. She has now no money, property, income or means of support, it was stated. Says Husband Was Sent Away. The elder Whitney has conspired to deprive Mrs. Whitney of support due her by his son, the bill declared. To this end, young Whitney was sent away from Chicago by his father, according to the bill, and is now believed to be in California.

Prince Edward Island Ex-Premier Killed by Car

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 29.—(AP.) John H. Bell, 59, former premier of Prince Edward Island, Canada, died in a hospital here today. He was struck down by an automobile and his skull fractured here Saturday night.

He was taken to the Keystone hospital.

Policeman Shoots Bandit Attempting to Escape

(Picture on back page.) Max Warndt, 23 years old, 3921 Nordica avenue, was shot and seriously wounded yesterday by Policeman Patrick Dillon of the Cragin station, after an unsuccessful attempt to rob Edward L. Morris, manager of the Palace Booties, Inc., 7122 Grand avenue. Warndt entered the shoe shop and threatening Morris with a knife, ordered him to hand over the contents of the cash register. Morris fled to the street and Warndt followed him. Patrolman Dillon who was summoned by a woman shopper, captured and disarmed Warndt. While waiting for a patrol wagon, Warndt made an attempt to escape and was shot in the hip. He was taken to the Keystone hospital.

Girls!

Read this Letter from Helen Martin of Boston, Mass.

"Since I was a tiny girl my white, regular teeth have been a great source of personal pride to me. So you can imagine how hot I was to find them becoming dull and yellow. 'Cigarettes, of course, were the reason. How I hated to give them up. But I didn't have to—thanks to Pebecco."

"One tube of this marvelous tooth paste has completely restored my teeth to their original whiteness. Pebecco makes smoking more enjoyable, too. For since I've been using it, I am no longer bothered with that unpleasant bitter taste of stale tobacco after too many cigarettes."

Very truly yours,
HELEN MARTIN.

DON'T LET A SMOKE SCREEN CLOUD YOUR TEETH

EVEN THE MILDEST tobacco paints the teeth with a yellowish tinge. Dries the mouth. Makes breath sour, unpleasant.

Disgusting—in a man. Simply ruinous to any girl's charm!

That's why the use of Pebecco is becoming so widespread among smokers. It's the only sure protection for teeth, mouth, and throat.

Pebecco's main ingredient is a special salt that gently stimulates a normal flow of alkaline saliva.

Hours after you brush your teeth with Pebecco this neutralizing fluid bathes your mouth.

It washes away the stale tobacco taste—the dingy discoloration. Whitens—brightens the precious enamel.

Pebecco keeps your entire mouth in a healthy, invigorated condition. Use it twice a day!

"Banished Tobacco Odor," writes Charles L. Fulton of Buffalo

"I am very fond of my pipe and cigars. But my wife keeps telling me how bad they are for my teeth and keeps chasing me to the dentist to have them cleaned and overhauled."

"One of your recent advertisements caught my eye and she immediately invested in a tube of Pebecco for my special benefit."

"I am forced to admit that even the first brushing brought great results. I have been using Pebecco only three weeks, but I shouldn't wonder if it developed into a life long habit. I like the salty tang it leaves in my mouth and it certainly keeps the 'smoke screen' off my teeth. My wife claims it has banished the old tobacco odor from my breath completely."

Very truly yours,
(CHARLES L. FULTON.)

GOVERNOR TAKES HAND IN WOOD ROBBERY INQUIRY

Orders Michigan Officers to Sift Charges.

Lansing, Mich., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Legislative investigation of the tangle of Wood case, one of the most complicated affairs that ever has claimed the attention of the state, probably never will materialize, developments indicated today, although such an inquiry was asked in a resolution offered in the house by Representative Vincent Dacey, Detroit.

Gov. Fred W. Green stepped into the picture today when he conferred with Oscar G. Glander, commissioner of public safety, and Richard G. Elliott, deputy commissioner, in regard to participation of their department in running down the various angles of the case.

Ralph Wood, Detroit contractor, and Cecil Holt now are in jail at Centerville charged with participation in a bank robbery at Sturgis, Dec. 17, and their arrest followed disclosures by the estranged wife of Wood, who is awaiting trial on a charge of plotting Wood's murder.

Tends to Implicate Wood.

State police took part in investigating the robbery but refused to act upon earlier information, apparently supplied by Mrs. Wood, tending to implicate Wood in the holdup.

Since the arrest of Wood and Holt at the request of St. Joseph county authorities, a division of opinion has been reported among the state operators, one faction adhering to the stand that a former convict and wife murderer is the real suspect wanted in connection with the robbery rather than Wood, while other state officers apparently credit the story of those who have identified Wood as one of the bandits.

Following the conference, Gov. Green said he had instructed the safety department heads to continue to give all possible assistance to the St. Joseph and Wayne county authorities in ferreting out the facts behind the charges and counter charges.

Offering of the resolution calling for a legislative investigation aroused much discussion among legislators but it appears improbable that any steps towards such an inquiry will follow.

Others Identify Wood.

Centerville, Mich., Jan. 29.—[AP.]—Further identification of Ralph A. Wood and Cecil Holt as participants in the $75,000 robbery of the Sturgis, Mich., National bank was claimed today by James T. Sloan, acting prosecutor of St. Joseph county.

Chicago Divorcee's Balm

Suit of $100,000 Dismissed

New York, Jan. 29.—[AP.]—The $100,000 breach of promise suit brought by Rose C. Mitchell, a Chicago divorcee, against William Manning Barr, New York investment broker, was dismissed today by Supreme Court Justice Glendon.

The court acted on the recommendation of Walter G. Dunnington, who, as referee, found that Miss Mitchell only four years ago had signed a paper releasing Barr from any claim.

DANDRUFF

A Sure Way to End It

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely, and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary Liquid Arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and two or three more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get Liquid Arvon at any drug store and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy never fails.

AFRICAN CABINET PERILED BY RACE EQUALITY ISSUE

CAPE TOWN, South Africa, Jan. 29.

—[AP.]—The atmosphere was electric in the union house of assembly today when Gen. Jan C. Smuts, leader of the opposition, opened the debate on his motion of non-confidence in the government of Premier J. B. Hertzog.

Storms of interruptions and applause punctuated the speech of the soldier-statesman.

"The government is going to the country without the slightest idea of any program and hence the native issue has been made the battle ground," Gen. Smuts said.

He remarked he had called for a devilish proposal and still did so. Amid uproar, the opposition leader denounced the stirring up of feeling between the whites and blacks and the manufacture of political capital out of the passions of the people.

A manifesto saying that the continued existence or downfall of the white man and his civilization is at stake in South Africa was issued today on behalf of Premier Hertzog, Minister of Interior Malan and Minister of Justice Roos.

The manifesto expresses complete disagreement with the native policy of the South African party.

The manifesto says that the leader of any party aiming to place the Ka-fir and the white on an equal footing everywhere cannot cooperate with the government, "which is endeavoring to make South Africa safe for the white man."

South Africa, continues the manifesto, is now faced by the choice of two ways, one seeking a solution through the preservation of South Africa for the white race and the other holding out "a sure and certain abyss as the final destination."

"If South Africa must really be handed over to the natives, then let the white man know in order that we may prepare ourselves by needful measures for safety, though it means seeking a home elsewhere."

Statistics are quoted to show that any federation of British states in South Africa would result in the addition of 64,000 Europeans to the union's 1,800,000 whites, whereas more than 13,000,000 would be added to the union's 6,000,000 natives.

What every woman wants to know about domestic refrigeration...

A STRAIGHTFORWARD TALK TO HOSTESSES

MODERN refrigeration demands icy-cold. Bacteria cannot destroy foods so protected. The icy-cold must be constantly maintained, even when food compartments are over-burdened.

There are two refrigerants for use in domestic refrigerators. One is cold—the other is colder.

Years of Testing, Proving

Williams engineers, who produced the famous Oil-O-Matic chose the colder refrigerant for Williams Ice-O-Matic after years of testing. They demanded that Ice-O-Matic's frosty caverns be safe always.

As a result Williams Ice-O-Matic has twice the cooling capacity its cabinet sizes demand—can always keep delicate perishables and children's foods safe by keeping them icy-cold. Even extra burdens of large house parties do not overtax Ice-O-Matic—its icy-cold is maintained.

Cabinets of Beauty

Williams Ice-O-Matic is entirely automatic—dependable—so thrifty of current that many housewives find it cheaper than ice. Williams Ice-O-Matic is built to cool your entire family.

Beautiful new Crysteel cabinets of gleaming porcelain—interior dome light—rounded corners—spacious food compartments that are easy to clean. Let your nearest Williams dealer explain Ice-O-Matic in detail NOW—and be glad you have waited for this most efficient domestic refrigerator.

A modern interpretation of fine-car style

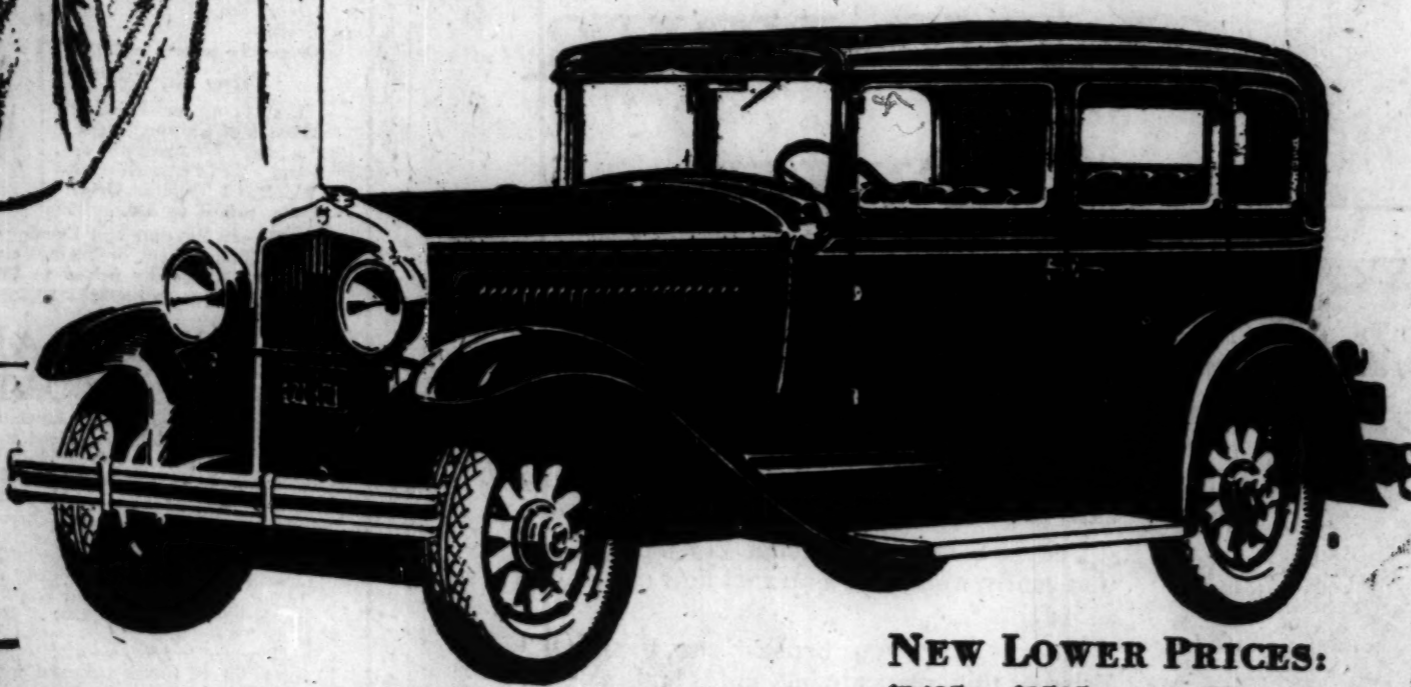

THE NEW Dodge Senior is a car of most compelling character—modern in mode, vivid in action—a classic among quality motor cars.

First of the Dodge Brothers creations built under the direction of Walter P. Chrysler, it is the largest, handsomest, and finest product of Dodge Brothers craftsmanship.

A well-mannered car in traffic or on the road is the new Dodge Senior. It rides with smoothness and comfort. It is wonderfully easy to steer and to handle. It commands acceleration, speed and power far beyond your every need.

Its refreshing lines and distinctive interiors are custom-like in quality and character. Here are sparkling new color harmonies in flawless taste; the latest artistic treatment of mouldings and panelings; seats luxuriously wide and generously cushioned, and fittings of exclusive and fashionable design.

In all the world of great motor cars, there is none quite like this spacious new Dodge Senior. It is a credit to the proficiency of the Dodge Brothers organization that built it and to the genius of Walter P. Chrysler who inspired it.

ADVERTISE IN THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE

GET LITTLE LIGHT ON CHECK GIVEN JUDGE HARDY

Legislators to Question Mrs. McPherson Again.

BY GEORGE SHAFER.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 29.—(Special.)—The five California legislators who are meeting as a special subcommittee of the state legislature to find out if Mrs. McPherson had paid any cash to Superior Judge Carlos S. Hardy, in connection with her mysterious disappearance in 1926, were so confounded with the results of the third day's investigation that the evangelist was notified to waive departure for Canada.

The inquiry, whose official mission is to render a report back to the legislature on Judge Hardy's acceptance of a $2,500 check from Mrs. McPherson while she was awaiting trial in 1926, after fruitless questioning of Mrs. McPherson, announced that she probably would be questioned again tomorrow.

Asked to Summon Mother. One of the assemblymen asked her to aid "in getting to the bottom of" the subject of the inquiry, and to urge her mother, Mrs. Minnie Kennedy, to come from Seattle to testify. According to previous testimony it was Mrs. Kennedy, then acting as Almee's business manager, who countersigned Judge Hardy's $2,500 check as "legal and defense."

"If I see her up north I will tell her she's wanted," Almee replied. "Did you pay out any cash in amounts over $1,000 prior to the disappearance of the criminal complaint?"

NAVAL AIR BASE ON PACIFIC COAST PROPOSED IN HOUSE

Washington, D. C., Jan. 29.—(Special.)—Establishment of a $5,000,000 naval air base on the Pacific coast was proposed today in a bill introduced in the house by Representative Fred A. Britten (Rep., Ill.). The bill, offered by Mr. Britten at the request of Secretary of the Navy Wilbur, would authorize an immediate appropriation of $2,000,000 and directs the appointment of a naval board to select a site and prepare estimates for submission to congress. "The present rigid airship operations are handicapped by lack of proper shed facilities," said Mr. Britten. "It is up to congress to immediately provide proper shed facilities for the two giant dirigibles already contracted for."

against you in 1926?" Chairman Little asked. "Not that would concern Judge Hardy," she replied. "Do you remember any instance where you ever paid cash to Judge Hardy?"

Mrs. McPherson could remember none.

Judge Hardy a Witness. Judge Hardy was a witness in his own defense this afternoon. He informed the committee that the $2,500 check was the way in which Mrs. McPherson's congregation recognized favors that he had rendered the church in its infancy two or three years prior to the McPherson disappearance and trial.

The Rev. J. W. Arthur, bookkeeper at Angelus temple, testified that he had noted the $2,500 check to Judge Hardy as "legal and defense" in the accounts without "knowing what legal meant."

POLICE ARREST NEW SUSPECT IN KILLING OF GIRL

Another suspect in the murder of Laura Buchholz, who was clubbed to death as she was on her way home in Blue Island, Ill., several days ago, was arrested yesterday by the West Chicago police. He gave his name as Charles Brathens and told the police his home was in Woodstock, Ill. Chief of Police Clarence Sullivan of West Chicago notified the Blue Island police that he was holding the suspect. Brathens, according to Chief Sullivan, answers the description of the man who entered a switchman's shanty on the Rock Island road at Blue Island shortly after the murder and washed blood from his hands.

SPECIAL SHOWING GENERAL MOTORS CARS

A beautiful spectacle awaits you—one which pleases, entertains and instructs.

Here, you will see modern art and modern science skillfully blended. Here, graphically bared, is the very spirit of the age in which we live.

You will see that spirit in the modern decorations by Wittbold—the vigorous colorings, the impressive backgrounds.

And you will see it even more concretely in the refinements of General Motors products—the answers of science and art to the modern demand for greater convenience, comfort, luxury and durability—for higher standards of living—for greater and still greater dominance over time and space.

Covering fifty-one thousand square feet of floor space are ninety-seven passenger cars and commercial vehicles—exhibits of Fisher bodies, Ternstedt fittings and Frigidaires—a large animated model of the General Motors Proving Ground by Boucher, master model builder—

Come to the Stevens Hotel and view these exhibits. Daily, from 10 a.m. until midnight, January 26 to February 2. No charge for admission.

SCOUR COAST FOR RUM LADEN SHIP HEADING HERE

3 Armed Forces Patrol
Lake Front.

Three enforcement agencies, the police, coast guard, and prohibition department, were scouring the lake front from the Chicago river south to the Calumet district last night in an attempt to capture a mysterious vessel which is said to be on its way here from Detroit with a cargo intended to relieve the threatened liquor famine in Chicago. According to reports the boat is scheduled to dock in the Pugh Terminal slip at the foot of East North Water street.

Word of the expected consignment came in a roundabout fashion. The Maywood police department is said to have first obtained advice from a telephone conversation. The advent of a new sheriff in Sturgis, Mich., they heard, had almost closed up the best available rum running route from Detroit to Chicago and the Canadian shippers were forced to resort to lake transportation. The boat had already left Detroit for its trip through the Straits of Mackinac and down Lake Michigan, the police were told.

Coast Guard Notified.

This information was given to East Chicago avenue police, who relayed it to Capt. John Anderson of the coast guard.

Capt. Anderson, in turn, notified Deputy Prohibition Administrator F. D. Silloway. Mr. Silloway, guarding against false information, sent his agents south to watch the docks and wharves of the steel company plants in the Calumet district where the ore steamers put in.

Capt. Anderson notified lighthouse keepers to keep close watch of the shipping and several police from the East Chicago avenue station were watching the slip where the boat is due to land. The coast guard head was skeptical of the rumor, however.

May Be Warned by Radio.

"It would be impossible for a boat to come through the straits now," he said last night. "The ice there is solid. Here, even, it extends about fifteen miles out into the lake."

Belief that the liquor boat may be equipped with radio and has been warned of the vigilance being maintained in Chicago for its arrival was expressed last night.

LABORER FINED AFTER TREATMENT OF BROKEN LEG CRIPPLES BOY, 8

Peter Zalowski, an 8 year old school boy, had his broken leg bound in splints and plastered with a salve by a neighbor, who, it was alleged, claimed that he was a doctor. The leg was broken in a fall last March and yesterday Peter, said to be a cripple for life due to improper attention, was in court when the neighbor was fined $100 by Municipal Judge Alfred O. Erickson.

Peter fell off the roof of his home at 1830 West Superior street, March 11, 1928. His mother asked a friend to get a doctor, and John Babic, 1940 West Superior street, a laborer, was brought in. Babic, the testimony showed, bound the fractured bone in splints, and bandaged it with a salve secured at a drug store. He continued to make visits to the Zalowski home for three weeks after the fall, and was paid $5 and asked for $45 more, witnesses testified.

Eventually, it was learned that Babic was not a physician, but it was too late for another doctor to correct the work done by Babic. Babic denied that he had posed as a doctor. Judge Erickson expressed the belief that Babic was guilty of violation of the medical practice act, but said Babic might have been giving first aid, and the Zalowskis might not have understood that he was not a doctor.

GOVERNOR FACES 3 MORE CHARGES IN IMPEACHMENT

Oklahoma House to Hear
Johnston Tomorrow.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Jan. 29.—(AP)—Three additional articles of impeachment tonight faced Henry S. Johnston, suspended governor of Oklahoma, who is scheduled to answer to eight charges before the senate court of impeachment Thursday.

By one of the largest votes yet recorded in an impeachment charge against Johnston, the house of representatives late today adopted an article alleging general incompetency. The other two charges, like four previously voted, charged the illegal issuance of deficiency certificates.

Add Flavor to Proceedings.

A rumor gave added flavor to the day's inquisitorial proceedings, which were curtailed by consideration of the new charges. A state representative, who has remained friendly to the Johnston administration, said he had heard the suspended governor discharge his much discussed confidential secretary, Mrs. O. O. Hammond, on the day he was temporarily removed from office.

Mrs. Hammond denied the rumor promptly, admitting that she had been asked by numerous friends to resign. Johnston refused to comment on the report.

Deserted by Friend.

The article charging incompetency was adopted by a vote of 12 to 24. In the discussion which preceded the action, D. M. Logan, Oklahoma county representative, who had voted against the adoption of all preceding charges, announced he would vote for it. Logan was an administration supporter in the attempted impeachment session of 1927, and argued against the adoption of previous charges.

Logan, an attorney, said he believed the house had no jurisdiction in the other articles, but that the incompetency charge came specifically under the provisions of the constitution. Heated debates preceded adoption of the two articles charging the illegal issuance of deficiency certificates.

CONVICTED OF SELLING ROOZE.

Louis Lalum, part owner of a soft drink parlor at 2870 Lincoln avenue, and Arthur Weidstein, the bartender, were convicted in the racket court before Judge David F. Trade yesterday on a charge of having sold half a pint of moonshine whiskey to a 4 year old boy, William Gersten, 2813 North Racine avenue. The boy admitted that police raiders had given him the money with which to buy the liquor. Lalum was fined $10 and Weidstein $100.

NARROW ROADS PERIL CAR TRADE, NASH DECLARES

Urges 2-Level Highways for Motor Progress.

BY PUTNEY HAIGHT.

Charles W. Nash, Kenosha automobile manufacturer, veteran of more than a quarter of a century in the industry, and 65 years of age on Monday, came out with the cold statement yesterday that failure to expand and improve motorway facilities immediately must be reflected in a decline of automobile production and progress. Mr. Nash spoke before 650 members of the Nash Motors dealers organization at the Congress at noon, where he voiced his conclusions on the proposition that highway development is lagging to such a serious extent that the industry must lend a hand without delay.

Urges Double Level Streets.

"Two level highways in metropolitan centers," he said, "are an immediate necessity. If elevated motorways are not provided between downtown districts and suburbs, congestion will make it practically impossible to obtain adequate transportation service out of motor vehicles in urban territory."

"Every man interested in automobile merchandising has a vital duty to perform in supporting and even originating national, state, county, and city programs for wider highways, grade separations, and unimpeded thoroughfares."

"I have noticed frequent predictions that there will be fifty million cars a year in 1940. If there are it is obvious that at least twice the present highway capacity must be provided before that time. If highway expansion does not speed up there lies in the situation a peril to the further development and distribution of motor cars. It is time that every man

Auto Show Notes

Knute Rockne, Notre Dame football genius, has come to be a high light among automotive gatherings. He personifies the driving qualities which characterize the industry and on Monday stirred up the personnel of the Studebaker organization with some of his similes. President Erskine was the principal speaker and H. R. Lavy, Chicago distributor, was on the program.

Mr. Rockne also extended his inspirational efforts to the Cadillac-La Salle organization at the dealers' meeting at the Stevens hotel yesterday.

The Ford exposition at the 131st armory attracted 13,500 visitors on Monday and about 16,000 yesterday. Four new body types for model A are now on exhibition.

R. E. Chamberlain, general sales manager for Packard, will speak on Thursday before the advertising council of the Association of Commerce.

Walter Jacobs, vice president of Hertz Drive-ur-Self, yesterday announced installation of a large fleet of new Chevrolet sixes for the local stations.

O. L. Arnold, sales director of General Motors trucks, announces the company's offer to place a truck, at company expense, in the hands of operators for complete work test.

In our industry take a personal interest in traffic improvement and look ahead at least five years in aiding plans of authorities."

E. H. McCarty, vice president and sales director, and C. H. Bliss, sales manager, also addressed the meeting. H. T. Hollingshead, president of Chicago Nash, was the host.

Willis Old Timer No. 1.

Another veteran of the industry who arrives for the Chicago show today is John N. Willis, head of Willis-Overland, who this morning will be notified that he has been honored by the directors of the Old Timers' club, who voted him card No. 1 of membership in the organization.

Until this action was taken card No. 1 had been held by the late Elwood Haynes, whose original motor car model is a prized possession of Smithsonian institution. The club's annual banquet is to be held at the Congress hotel tomorrow night and Mr. Willis will occupy the seat of honor. About 100 are expected to join the celebration of old timers.

A younger, though distinguished executive, E. L. Cord, president of Auburn, is distinguishing himself this year by not attending in show. Instead he is engaged in making an automobile trip of 10,000 miles, traveling incognito with one mechanic, to estimate the ability and stamina of a new Auburn product.

H. H. Franklin, pioneer of the industry and president of an automobile company longer than any other man, is at the Blackstone to meet units of his distributing organization.

CRIPPLED BRITISH SHIP IS REACHED BY U. S. CUTTER

ABOARD THE U. S. S. TAMPA, AT SEA, Jan. 29.—(By Radio to U. P.)

The coast guard cutter Mojave reached the crippled British freighter Silver Maple at 12:30 p. m. today and took the vessel in tow for Bermuda. The Silver Maple was in 24.55 longitude, 65.50 latitude, or about 1,000 miles southeast by east from Cape Hatteras.

The Tampa is acting as convoy. The Tampa reached the reported position of the Silver Maple only to receive word by radio that the vessel was in a new position 85 miles southeast. The Tampa received radio bearings and proceeded to the position given.

The Silver Maple sent out distress calls last Saturday reporting that its rudder was destroyed. The two coastal vessels started for the position given at once. Meanwhile, the Silver Maple, which carries a crew of about 25 men, rigged up a jury rudder and reported it was able to make some progress and to escape part of the fury of the storm.

King Continues to Gain;

Queen Reprieves Murderer

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

LONDON, Jan. 29.—Although there was no bulletin issued today on King George's condition, it was stated at Buckingham palace that the slow improvement in his majesty's condition continues. No date has yet been fixed for his transfer to Epsom, and it is unlikely that it will be fixed until the actual day, as much depends on the weather. Queen Mary presided at a council of state this morning, when a number of documents were signed, including a reprieve for a convicted murderer.

U. S. Maharanes Names Baby Sharada Raje

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

PARIS, Jan. 29.—Sharada Raje is the name which has been chosen for the little princess daughter of the maharajah and maharane of Indore. The maharane was Nancy Ann Miller of Seattle before her marriage to the former ruler of the Indian state. The baby is progressing excellently, unaware that she is protected by seventy Hindu guards and numerous priests, and that she will have to undergo the rigorous Hindu purification ceremony.

Its age is a private matter

It is very difficult to discover, by its appearance, how old a Lincoln is. Lincoln believes in making automobiles so beautiful that they are always modern—so durable that they simply won't wear out. The age of a Lincoln is no one's concern—least of all its owner's. On the boulevard a Lincoln of last season and the newest model share honors equally with Lincolns years older than either.

So fine is this car that a year or so of use does not perceptibly detract from any of its splendid qualities. Lincoln owners are often men who can, and do, provide the best professional care for their cars. Sometimes such well-kept cars are available at very attractive prices from Lincoln dealers. The wisdom of investing in such a motor car is quite evident, and shrewd buyers are quick to take advantage of the opportunity.

A few such Lincolns are now to be seen on local dealers' floors. Every one is in perfect mechanical condition. Authorized Lincoln dealers are always glad to demonstrate them to you, without the slightest obligation. Drop in today.

Why Girls Stay Home!

Here's the simplest of all schemes for keeping girls home:

Item No. 1—Friendly, cozy living-room. Dad supplies that for the family, anyhow.

Item No. 2—Genuine welcome. Mother can be depended on for that.

Item No. 3—Plenty of cheery heat. You can bank on your furnace for that, if you feed it properly with good hard coal.

There's no fuel quite so good as Anthracite. Dependable, long-burning, clean, economical, safe hard coal. And it's the simplest trick in the world to make it give you its very best. Just a matter of feeding it right. Fixing the drafts right. And then leaving it alone until the next time.

The right way of taking care of your furnace is also the easiest way. Ask your Anthracite coal dealer to show you.

BUICK

1. For more than 25 years.
2. More than 2,250,000.
3. More than 1,500,000.
4. Buick has more than 4,000 authorized service stations in America.
5. More than 220,000—twice the number of any other make listing above $1200.
6. Sealed chassis. Triple-sealed engine. Vacuum cleaned crankcase. Automatic lubrication of engine, differential, universal joint and fan bearing. Positive centralized chassis lubrication.
7. Buick mechanical four-wheel brakes. Narrow windshield side pillars. Sturdy double-drop frame. Composite wood and steel body.
8. New adjustable front seat and adjustable steering column. Full-width rear seats. Four Buick Lovejoy hydraulic shock absorbers in conjunction with Buick cantilever springs and torque tube drive.
9. New and larger Buick Six-Cylinder Valve-in-Head engine—the most powerful engine of its size in the world. New positive-pressure fuel pump. New camshaft. New valve-operating mechanism. New high speed triple-jet carburetor. New manifold system. New type muffler. New multiple disc clutch. New engine mountings of soft, live rubber.
10. More powerful starting motor. New rugged 16-plate battery. Buick improved carburetion system. Automatic heat control. Buick thermostatic circulation control.
11. All Buick closed models have the new Masterpiece Body by Fisher—original, distinctive—introducing graceful contours instead of harsh straight lines—luxurious upholsteries and highest grade of fittings are employed throughout.
12. Half of all new Buicks sold go to former Buick owners.
13. There are 19 Buick models—sedans—coupes—open cars—priced from $1195 to $2145 at the factory. One of these will meet your needs, exactly.

Again in 1928 Buick won more than twice as many buyers as any other car listing above $1200!

TRAGEDY GREETED PRINCE ON TOUR OF POVERTY LAND

Visits Coal Mine Areas
Where Hunger Reigns.

BY JOHN STEELE.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
LONDON, Jan. 29.—As though fate had conspired to give the prince of Wales an inside glimpse of the tragedy of the mining regions, death visited a miner's home in Newcastle a few hours before the prince's arrival today.

The prince, who is keeping his route secret in order to see conditions as they really are instead of witnessing formally presented scenes, left the train in Newcastle with his coat collar turned up, and passed unrecognized through crowds of unsuspecting workmen. Wading through snow and slush three inches deep the prince went to the home of Joseph Mackay, a veteran miner of Winstan, near Newcastle, who had offered to conduct the prince on his tour.

Entering the miner's humble cottage the prince found two daughters mourning over the body of their mother, who had died the night before. The prince offered his sympathy and tactfully withdrew without seeing Mackay, who had gone to a neighboring town to make arrangements for the funeral.

Fellows Prince; Tells Story.

When Mackay heard the prince had visited his home, he followed the royal party to the nearby town of Shopwell, where he met the prince. The old man told the prince his story, how he had been without work for two years while his two sons had been unemployed for three years and his third son works only half the time. To make matters worse he has one daughter who is an invalid. Much touched by this story, the prince turned to Curtis Bennett, secretary of the miners' distress fund, who was accompanying him, and asked that something be done for Mackay. Another impromptu meeting occurred when Taffy Lewis, a Welshman, whom the prince encountered in the street, asked to serve as guide. The prince asked if he might visit the Lewis home and the miner, much flattered, led the way. As they approached the home the Lewis children recognized the royal guest and rushed into the house.

Seven Live on $5 a Week.

The prince politely asked, "May I come in, please?" He then chatted for a few moments with the five young children whom Lewis supports, as well as his wife and himself, on $5 a week. He has been out of work for four years. The prince again asked Bennett to help Lewis and found in response to his questions that the children needed boots and blankets. He promised that they should have them.

By this time the entire region was humming with the news of the prince's arrival, and busy housewives ran about frantically tidying up in case of an unexpected visit.

Introduces Her Daughter.

At the home of Robert Ferrage, Mrs. Ferrage, although embarrassed by the unusual honor, managed enough self-possession to inform her daughter when the prince entered the room who the distinguished visitor was, which caused a general laugh, since informing an English girl as to the identity of the prince is a highly superfluous action.

In several towns the prince visited the labor exchanges and saw long lines of unemployed men signing the register in order to receive payment of the unemployment dole. He also inspected the Consett Iron works, which employs 10,000 men.

On the whole course of his tour the prince was greeted with cheers from crowds that gathered almost as soon as he reached a town, for the news spread fast, but the prince traveled fast also and managed to see a good many villages before the inhabitants had had a chance to set the scopes.

Guatemala Rebel Chieftain

Cornered, Slain by Troops

GUATEMALA CITY, Jan. 29.—(AP)—Col. Baudilio Santos, rebel leader, was shot and killed yesterday morning when he attempted to evade capture in the department of Salama, where he led rebel forces in the recent attempted revolution.

TWO ARRESTED AFTER HOTEL FIRE ROUTS 50 GUESTS

Following a fire which broke out early yesterday in the Sylvan hotel, 1451 West Madison street, Harry Feldman, manager of the hotel, and John Chayton, the janitor, were taken into custody upon the order of Battalion Chief Anthony Mullaney, after he had found several charred gasoline cans in a loft of the building, where the blaze originated. Feldman and Chayton are being held by Dea Plaines street police pending questioning by Fire Attorney Scott M. Hogan. Fifty residents of the hotel were driven to the street by the flames.

This Wisconsin Family Has Twins and Twins and Twins

Burlington, Wis., Jan. 29.—(Special.)—The birth of twin boys today to Mr. and Mrs. Will Lehr here today revealed a curious recurrence of the "twin" freak in his family.

The mother of the twins has a twin brother living in Hazel Green, Wis. The father has two brothers who are twins, and his mother is a twin.

SOUTH DAKOTA UNIVERSITY HEAD DIES ON TRAIN

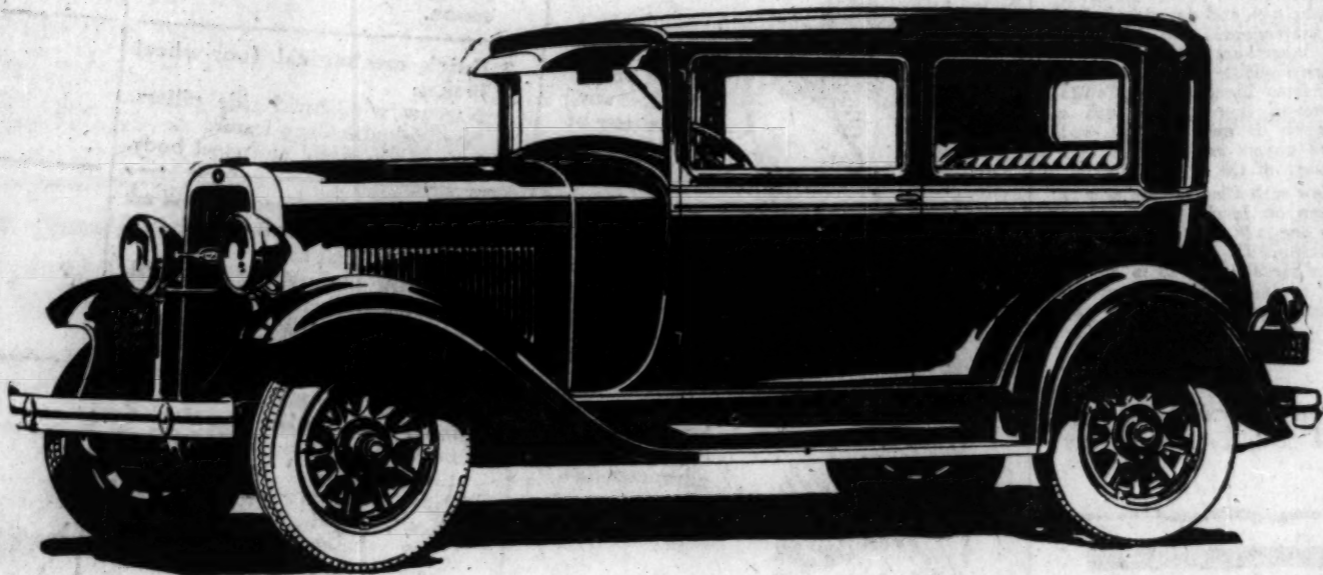

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 29.—(AP)—Robert Lincoln Slagle, president of the University of South Dakota at Vermillion, S. D., since 1914, died from the effects of paralysis on a New York Central train near here tonight. He was en route to Charlottesville, W. Va. The body was removed from the train here and will be returned to Vermillion tomorrow.

College President Ill on Train.

Galesburg, Ill., Jan. 29.—(Special.)—President F. D. Parrott of Kansas Agricultural college was removed from a Santa Fe train to a hospital here today for treatment for pneumonia poisoning with which he was suddenly stricken while on the train. He was en route from Manhattan, Kan., to Chicago.

MAN OVER BY STREET CAR.

Frank Lemons, 68 years old, a carpenter, 1510 South Paulina street, was probably fatally injured when he was run over by a street car while attempting to cross the street at Roosevelt road and Paulina street last night. At the county hospital supervision of Lemons' right foot was found necessary. He also is suffering from a possible skull fracture.

FINER THAN EVER LOWER in PRICE

WITH ALL its desirable improvements... with all its additional smartness, luxury, comfort and performance... the 1929 Oldsmobile is lower than ever in price... now only $875.

The 1929 Oldsmobile is more beautiful than ever in appearance—the result of new style refinements and new color combinations. The 1929 Oldsmobile is more luxurious, more comfortable and offers new conveniences for driver and passengers. Seat cushions are deeper and softer. Upholsteries are richer. And the Fisher adjustable front seat, combined with Oldsmobile's adjustable steering wheel, makes the driving position a matter of individual choice.

COMBINE TAXES, SAVE MILLIONS, EXPERT ADVISES

Reveals Inefficiency of Present System.

The savings of from $25,000,000 to $50,000,000 might be effected through a consolidation of Cook county taxing agencies, J. L. Jacobs, county efficiency engineer, reported yesterday. His statement on the chaotic conditions in the county was read to an advisory commission appointed by Anton J. Cermak, president of the county board, at which Prof. Charles E. Merriam presided.

There are 31 distinct and independent local governing bodies within the city of Chicago, while in Cook county, outside Chicago, there are 455 additional governing agencies which levy taxes, including 9 cities, 76 villages, 10 townships, 122 school districts, 25 park districts, 40 road and bridge districts, 3 sanitary districts and a number of miscellaneous agencies, Mr. Jacobs reported.

Other facts set forth by him are: The county clerk has to make computation for 450 separate tax levying entities. The number of elective officials in Cook county is 650 and in the city of Chicago alone a person may vote for 157 elective officials. These governing bodies are spending more than $250,000,000 annually. They employ over 60,000 persons, not including part time employees. In 1927 these government agencies had funded debts of more than $50 million dollars and floating unfunded debts in excess of 125 million dollars. Each of these bodies has its own independent financial, accounting, purchasing, and maintenance organizations, and most of them operate overlapping police, health, sanitary, engineering, construction, and other forces.

NIGHT CLUB QUEEN GIVEN 15 MONTHS AT HARD LABOR

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
LONDON, Jan. 29.—London's latest police sensation reached a climax today when a jury found former police Sgt. George Goddard, Mrs. Kate Meyrick, London's "Nightclub Queen," and Luigi Achille Ribuffi, nightclub manager, guilty of all the charges brought against them—Goddard with receiving money as bribes from the other two defendants, both the latter with bribery, and all three with conspiracy.

Goddard was sentenced to eighteen months at hard labor and fined $10,000. He also was ordered to pay the cost of the prosecution. Mrs. Meyrick and Ribuffi were each sentenced to fifteen months at hard labor. Mrs. Meyrick has already served two sentences of imprisonment in connection with night club scandals. One of her daughters last year married young Lord Kinnoull while another is married to Lord De Clifford.

The jury took two and three quarter hours to consider their verdict.

SALVATION ARMY FIGHT FOR POWER GOES UP IN COURT

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
LONDON, Jan. 29.—All hope of a friendly settlement of the Salvation Army struggle over the position of Gen. Bramwell Booth vanished today when counsel for both sides appeared before the high court to argue Gen. Booth's application for an injunction restraining the high council of the Army from acting on a resolution deposing Gen. Booth from his position as head of the Army.

Wilfrid Arthur Greene, counsel for Gen. Booth, made a strong plea for the general's right to be heard by the council before his removal. He argued that under the trust deed establishing the government of the Army, the action of the council was illegal.

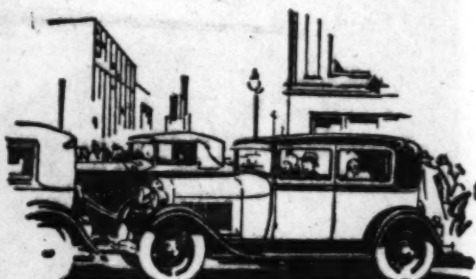

On behalf of the high council, an affidavit by Commissioner Edward Higgins was introduced in which he said that he had interviewed Gen. Booth and formed the opinion that he was the victim of both physical and mental deterioration and that he was unlikely ever again to be able to discharge the onerous duties of his office.

Safety, silence and simplicity are features of the new Ford six-brake system

ONE of the first things you will notice when you drive the new Ford is the quick, effective, silent action of its six-brake system.

This system gives you the highest degree of safety and reliability because the four-wheel service brakes and the separate emergency or parking brakes are all of the mechanical, internal-expanding type, with braking surfaces fully enclosed for protection against mud, water, sand, etc.

The many advantages of this type of braking system have long been recognized. They are brought to you in the new Ford through a series of mechanical improvements embodying much that is new in design and manufacture.

A particularly unique feature is the simple way by which a special drum has been constructed to permit the use of two sets of internal brakes on the rear wheels.

The brake construction on the front wheels also is unusual. Here the brakes are enclosed without the use of a leather boot or sliding joint to protect the linkage between the brake rods and the mechanism on the brake plate.

A further improvement is effected by the self-centering feature of the four-wheel brakes—an exclusive Ford development. Through this construction, the entire surface of the shoe is brought in contact with the drum the instant you press your foot on the brake pedal. This prevents screeching and howling and makes the Ford brakes unusually silent.

Another feature of the Ford brakes is the ease of adjustment.

The four-wheel brakes are adjusted by turning a regulating screw conveniently located on the outside of each brake plate. This screw is so notched that all four brakes can be set alike simply by listening to the "clicks."

The emergency or parking brakes on the new Ford require little attention. However, should they need adjustment at any time, consult your Ford dealer for prompt, courteous, and economical service. He works under close factory supervision and he has been specially trained and equipped to help you get the greatest possible use from your car over the longest period of time at a minimum of trouble and expense.

GENIAL HOST IS VICTOR AT N. O. IN ROUGH RACE

6 Year Old Comes Home by Stretch Drive.

New Orleans, La., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—A sensational race took place at the Fair Grounds track this afternoon which Genial Host ended to win the Ocean Springs purse, the feature. At a mile this race saw bumping on the turn and in the stretch which bumped about the eventual winner and once very nearly knocked him down.

The Fair Acres farm owner Genial Host and Trainer J. McPherson selected Tony Pascuma to pilot his 6 year old. Genial Host broke well, although not as fast as several of the others. He was shuffled back although not seriously and was fifth at the quarter pole. Marshall Ney, the favorite, was the early leader and as Pascuma sent his mount along on the inside he was again bothered and prevented from getting clear.

FAIR GROUND RESULTS.

U. S. STEEL CORP.
BEST PERIODSNet Income for 1928
Is $107,826,784.

BY O. A. MATHER.

As the result of last year's record production of steel, the United States steel corporation last year enjoyed one of the best periods in its history. Year-end adjustments being considered, the 1928 earnings set a peace time record without adjustments, they were recorded only moderately in 1929, 1928, and 1926, and, of course, the war years.

The steel corporation's report for the final quarter of 1928, issued yesterday, indicates net income of $107,826,784 for the year. But year-end credit adjustment of $6,172,000 would increase net income to $113,998,784. The latter figure is equivalent, after preferred dividends, to $11.61 a share on the common stock, while the latter figure would be equivalent to $12.47 a share. Net income for 1927 was $103,843,435, or $8.81 a share.

Net Income.

The report was generally received with satisfaction, although earnings for the year and the annual output were below the more optimistic forecasts. Net income for the final quarter was $20,739,896, or $2.43 a share on the common stock, compared with $13,734,332, or $1.65 a share, in the final quarter of 1927. The steel corporation declared a dividend of $2.50 a share on the common stock at the end of 1928, compared with $2.00 a share in 1927. The steel corporation declared a dividend of $2.50 a share on the common stock at the end of 1928, compared with $2.00 a share in 1927.

The whole steel industry has hit up production pace again in the last week. Output now averages around 17 per cent of capacity, compared with 15 per cent a year ago and 10 per cent a year ago. The steel corporation is operating close to 87 per cent of independent mills are around 82 per cent. A year ago the steel corporation was running 85 per cent, and independent mills were just under 70 per cent.

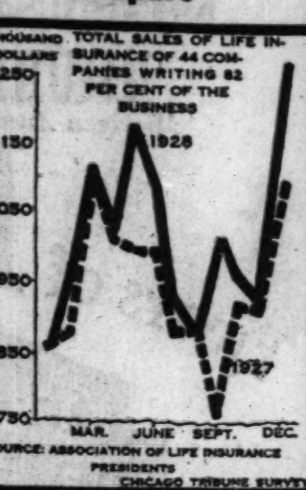

The Chicago district still is setting a pace, with production at 90 per cent of capacity, compared with 88 per cent a week ago. The Illinois Steel Co., a steel corporation subsidiary, now in another blast furnace yesterday, making 17 of its 27 furnaces active. The company now is employing its largest number of workers since 1927.

With the steel corporation's earnings boosted, there is eager interest in that its chief rival, the General Motors corporation, will show. The latter set a new record for car sales last year, despite a sharp slump in December, so a new earnings record is expected.

Consumer Sales.
General Motors sold 1,810,806 cars to dealers last year, an increase of 48,000 cars, or 15.9 per cent, over 1927. Sales to consumers totaled 1,842,443 cars, a gain of 287,886, or 18.5 per cent. December sales to dealers were 152,127, and sales to consumers were 154,441, compared with 152,760 in December 1927. The sales were attributed by President Alfred P. Sloan Jr. to the fact that dealers' stocks were practically exhausted while the corporation was preparing to bring out its new models.

Charge Eastern Bankers with Fraud in Theater Suit
A suit charging fraud against G. E. Barrett & Co., New York bankers, and Frederick Pierce & Co., Philadelphia, to recover stock valued in excess of $1,000,000 was filed yesterday by the National Playhouses, Inc., holding company for National Theaters, Inc., owner of a string of Chicago motion picture houses. The suit charges the bankers gained control of the stock through fraudulent manipulation of the affairs of the national companies. The affairs of the company are pending in bankruptcy proceedings in federal court.

Rumors Link
N. Y. Banks in
Giant Merger

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
New York, Jan. 29.—Rumors which for several weeks have linked the names of the Guaranty Trust company and the National Bank of Commerce in discussions of a coming $2,000,000,000 bank merger—America's first two billion dollar institution—began to find their way into print on news tickers in the financial district today.

Such a merger would be the largest banking consolidation New York or, for that matter, this country has ever seen. The Guaranty Trust company on Dec. 31 had resources of $1,052,000,000. The National Bank of Commerce had assets of $934,000,000. The capital of the Guaranty and the Commerce combined would be $65,900,000. Surplus of the Guaranty and the Commerce would total $111,000,000.

N. Y. CENTRAL IS PLEASED WITH GRANT FROM U. S.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
New York, Jan. 29.—Pleased with the grant from the interstate commerce commission of leave to take over by lease the Michigan Central, Big Four and five smaller controlled lines, the New York Central will set about purchasing six independent short roads in keeping with the proviso attached by the commission, of feeble of the road asset.

The commission approved the proposed leases on the express condition that the New York Central within six months, should offer to acquire the lines of the Boyne City, Gaylord and Alpena; the Chicago, Attica and Southern; the Federal Valley; the Fond du Lac, Johnstown and Gloverville; the Ulster and Delaware; and the southern segment of the Owaseo River railway. For considerations equal to the commercial value of the respective properties as determined by agreement between the parties, or by arbitration in the manner prescribed for valuation of minority shares of stock of losers.

Besides the Big Four and the Michigan Central the proposed leases would bind to the New York Central the Cincinnati Northern, the Peoria and Eastern, the Kalamazoo and Seneca, the Evansville, Indianapolis and Terre Haute, and the Chicago, Kalamazoo and Saginaw, all of which have long been part of the New York Central system through stock ownership.

Production of Crude Oil Again Sets a New Record
New York, Jan. 29.—(AP)—The daily average gross crude oil production in the United States increased 18,900 barrels for the week ended Jan. 26, totaling 2,663,100 barrels, a new peak, says the weekly summary of the American Petroleum Institute. The daily average production east of California was 1,894,800 barrels, an increase of 3,900 barrels. The daily California output was 768,300 barrels, an increase of 15,000 barrels.

Net Operating Income of 46 Railroads Show Gain
New York, Jan. 29.—(AP)—The first forty-six class one railroads reporting December earnings had net operating income for the month totaling $47,367,000 compared with $28,315,000 in December, 1927, a gain of 67.3 per cent.

Prosperity Is Big Factor in Travel Abroad

BY SCRUTATOR.

Expenditures by Americans in foreign travel have an important bearing on international finance. They constitute one of the invisible items which in part overcome the problem presented by the country's annual excess of exports over imports; of how to get money back to debtor nations so they can pay their bills here.

Since the war travel and the money it transfers in the international field have increased greatly. One of the facts noted in this connection is that no section of the country seems to have fallen behind in the number of citizens desirous of going abroad and able to do so. Middle westerners travel as enthusiastically as those on the seaboard.

Five years ago the Chicago passport office approved about 8,000 applications for foreign travel. There has been a general and steady increase since, averaging about 1,000 a year. The last fiscal year saw 13,000 passports issued here. Robert A. Proctor, of that office said yesterday that he had information tending to show that by the end of the government's fiscal year in June the total would be 15,000.

Saturation Point.
"We believe the number finally will reach 20,000," he said. "That may be the saturation point for the middle west. The increase has been spread over the entire year and we find that proportionately the number taking winter cruises rises about as much as the summer tourists."

Why are travelers from the midwest nearly twice as many as a few years ago? The question brought an assortment of answers. Mr. Proctor theorized that the automobile has made it possible for thousands to see all they wish of their own country and that their journeys at home gave them the idea of going farther away. A measure of prosperity, increasing annually, also had an effect.

A hypothesis to the effect that perhaps visits abroad are just a way of spending profits made in the stock market apparently has little support. Mr. Proctor said that just now the applications for passports are hardly so numerous as a year ago, but that the usual increase would almost certainly occur shortly.

Type of Travelers.

A manager for a travel bureau representing a number of steamship lines believed that quite as many stock market winners are among the travelers. But a representative of a line that carries many Chicagoans to the West Indies, where passports are not required, declared there was no evidence of it.

"More and more go out every year," he asserted, "but the type doesn't change much. Business and professional men predominate in the winter vacation group, although we have many in mechanical occupations. I sold a round trip ticket the other day to a railroad brakeman who wanted to see Cuba. Our customers don't seem to be speculators."

Travel, it is claimed, has been cheapened. But it is still a luxury in most instances, and if the number of middle westerners with the money and leisure to indulge in it continues to grow the answer apparently is that prosperity—either the stock market kind or the sort based on savings from income—is growing too.

Standard of Ohio Boosts
Price of Gas a Cent

New York, Jan. 29.—(AP)—The Standard Oil Company of Ohio has increased the tank wagon price of gasoline in its territory one cent a gallon. The new prices are 17 cents for Red Crown and 20 cents for Sohio Ethyl gasoline. Service station prices are unchanged at 19 and 22 cents respectively.

Demand Promises Good
Sales for Machine Tools

New York, Jan. 29.—(AP)—With demand for machine tools at a high level throughout the country, January sales promise to equal if not exceed December sales, says American Machinist.

EXCHANGE HERE
ACTS TODAY ON
SEAT DIVIDENDPresent Membership to Be Doubled.

Chicago's position as the financial capital of the middle west will advance another step today when the governors of the Chicago stock exchange meet to take action on a 100 per cent dividend on memberships.

The result of such approval will incidentally give each of the 235 members a seat to sell valued at between $25,000 and $40,000, figured on the basis of present memberships which are priced at between $7,000 and $30,000, or a total of around nine million dollars. The real object of the plan to double memberships is to provide representation previously not available on the Chicago exchange to scores of worthy financial houses and brokers in other cities of the middle west.

"Our plan to raise our membership to 470 is the direct result of Chicago's leadership in things financial of the middle west," said R. Arthur Wood, president, last night. "The exchange has grown tremendously during the last two years, and there is a demand for our quotations in every city in this section of the country and beyond."

"We have extended our ticker service to a score of cities and further extensions are being made as fast as tickers can be installed. With every three or four new tickers there is a legitimate demand for a seat on the exchange. We have no right to prevent the growth of Chicago as a financial center, and therefore are ready to provide full facilities to the entire middle west on the Chicago stock exchange."

The plan will become operative after ratification of the members takes place following the action of the board of governors.

ADVERTISING IS BOON TO MODERN
LIVING: LEITH

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 29.—(AP)—Campbell H. Leith of Detroit, president of the National Association of Merchant Tailors, told the 300 delegates to the organization's annual convention today that advertising had done more to improve the condition of the world than any other modern idea.

"It is the most moving, most compelling and most effective force in our lives," he declared. The advertising committee of the association has recommended a $2,000,000 advertising campaign for next year.

"Travel, it is claimed, has been cheapened. But it is still a luxury in most instances, and if the number of middle westerners with the money and leisure to indulge in it continues to grow the answer apparently is that prosperity—either the stock market kind or the sort based on savings from income—is growing too."

Agree to 85 Million Dollar
Baltimore Banking Merger

Baltimore, Md., Jan. 29.—(AP)—An agreement was reached today for a merger of the Baltimore Trust company and the National Union Bank of Maryland, according to an announcement made by Donald Symington, president of the trust company. The consolidation will create an $85,000,000 bank under the name of the Baltimore Trust company, and will be accomplished by an exchange of stock.

Metropolitan Life; Other
Concerns Pay Dividends

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
New York, Jan. 29.—Dividends aggregating $77,135,725 will be distributed to policy holders of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company during 1929, Halley Fluke, president, announced today. This total was reached with the further declaration of $21,811,000 of dividends for ordinary policy holders at the last regular meeting of the board of directors. The 1929 dividends bring the total dividends paid or credited to date by the Metropolitan, in all departments, to approximately $450,000,000.

Classified according to groups, the dividends to be paid during the current year are as follows: Ordinary dividends, $39,213,500; industrial dividends, $36,553,000, and accident and health dividends, slightly less than $1,000,000.

Welcome News.
Two 100 per cent stock dividends, stock split-ups, extra and initial payments and stock subscription privileges afforded satisfaction to stockholders of several corporations.

The Allegheny Steel company declared a 100 per cent stock dividend on its no-par common stock, payable at a date to be fixed later to stockholders of record Feb. 15. The American Encaustic Tiling company also declared a 100 per cent stock dividend on its no-par common stock, payable Feb. 15 to stockholders of record Feb. 1.

Associated Apparel Industries Reports Bigger Net Income
Miss America's wardrobe of foundation garments may be getting lighter each year, but her expenditures for such things are growing. Moreover, her preferences in such matters are being adopted abroad and proof thereof lies in the annual report of R. C. Storton, president of the Associated Apparel Industries, formerly the H. W. Gossett company, for 1928.

The summary to Mr. Storton's report will be issued Friday and in it he states that the increase in foreign sales during 1928 was impressive. The corporation now owns and operates nine companies manufacturing women's underthings.

Net sales for 1928 totaled $12,967,317, compared with $8,503,645 in 1927. Net profit was $313,337, equal to 2.47 per cent of sales, compared with 2.37 per cent in 1927. This compares with $535,995, or 5.31 per cent, in the pre-war year. After the payment of dividends amounting to $4 a share during the year, $257,258 was transferred to surplus.

ORDER SALE OF
RAILROAD TO PAY CREDITORS

Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 29.—(AP)—Foreclosure and sale of the Minneapolis and St. Louis railroad to satisfy the demand of creditors was ordered in a final decree signed by Judge Wilbur F. Booth of the United States Circuit court today. This decree was filed in the federal district court. Howard S. Abbott was appointed a special master for the purpose. The sale, however, is subject to appeal.

Mr. Abbott, since litigation started five years ago, has heard 4,200 claims against the railroad, totaling more than $10,000,000 and ranging from eight cents to $1,000,000. Five claims were presented by the federal government for three and one-half million dollars. A property value of approximately $70,000,000 has been placed on the railroad.

Turkish Assembly Ratifies
Concession to Henry Ford

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
PEKIN, Turkey, Jan. 29.—A project for the construction of a Ford assembly plant at Constantinople was ratified by the assembly today. The agreement provides for the employment of a force made up 15 per cent of Turks. The concession is for 25 years. The minister of finance predicted that the economic possibilities of supplying the Mediterranean basin would serve as an example to other capitalists.

"I'm Tired of Jumping In and Out of the Market"

Says a security buyer: "I made a little money during 1928, but I certainly earned it. I'm tired of watching the ticker and jumping in and out of the market — tired of deciding the eternal questions, 'Shall I sell now or wait?' and 'If I sell, what other stock shall I buy?'"

This investor has ended his perplexities and eased his mind by putting most of his profits and his principal in safe First Mortgage bonds. He bought some of these investments from H. O. Stone & Company, selecting bonds yielding 6% to 6½%, with maturities of eight to ten years. Thus he is assured of safety and a good yield on these funds until 1937 or longer.

Perhaps you, too, are tired of watching the stock market and attending to the details incident to frequent buying and selling of securities. Why not follow the course of this investor and buy good bonds for permanent investment? You will find the bond offerings of this old, reliable investment house well suited to your requirements—safe, dependable, profitable investments.

GRAIN PRICES SELL AGAIN AT LOWER LEVELS

Longs Liquidate Holdings on Board of Trade.

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

Scattered liquidation by longs was on in the grain markets yesterday, prices showing further declines from the previous day. Wheat from the previous day, with May down to $1.25, or 5 1/2 cents under the best figure of the previous week. Buying on retreating orders and by holders of bids brought a moderate rally, but the finish was at net losses of 1 1/2 cents, with March, $1.25 1/2, and May $1.25 1/2.

On Selling Side.

Failure of foreign buyers to take wheat on a liberal scale of late, while Argentine grain has been offered abroad below a parity with either American or Canadian grain, has attracted attention during the last few days, although it was ignored on the way up. The technical position of the market was also weakened by the recent bulk of around 150, and heavy profit taking has been on, which more than offset the continued claims of unfavorable crop outlook from the greater part of the winter wheat belt.

Foreign Demand Better.

Foreign cables told of increased purchases of Argentine wheat abroad and also of liberal consumption, with German trade reports estimating world's import requirements for the season at 20,000,000 bu., or 40,000,000 bu. in excess of Brown's previous figures. Some improvement in the foreign demand was shown during the day, with sales of 500,000 to 600,000 bu. in all positions. Winnipeg failed to follow the decline here, and lost only 1/4 cent for the day. Liverpool was 1/4 cent lower, and Buenos Aires was 1/4 cent lower.

World's available supply of wheat decreased 2,250,000 bu. for the week and is 395,399,000 bu. against 300,312,000 bu. last year.

More Pressure on Corn.
Local longs and commission houses were on the selling side of corn and some stop loss orders were caught on the way down, with May at the low point showing a drop of 1/4 cent from the recent high. Outside commission houses buying appears to have fallen off somewhat of late, the lack of foreign demand and the failure of the Argentine markets to respond to continued dry weather having some influence. Buenos Aires closed 1/4 cent lower for the day and Rosario was 1/4 cent lower with late cables reporting weather as clear, although rains were forecast for the night. Country offerings of corn to arrive were somewhat larger, with purchases of 50,000 bu. to arrive. The local spot basis was steady to 1/4 cent higher. The United Kingdom was in the market for corn at the seaboard with some sales made, but quantities were not given. Owing to cold and stormy weather consumption in Europe has been heavy.

Liquidation was on in oats early, and while there was a rally from the inside figures due to a marked improvement in the cash demand, the close was well toward the low point. Shipping sales aggregated 142,000 bu. Rye was under pressure and the market showed a heavy undertone with May showing the most decline. Support came largely from commission houses on resting orders.

CASH GRAIN NEWS

Decline in wheat futures resulted in a better foreign demand for cash grain with sales of 500,000 to 600,000 bu. reported in all positions. There were also sales of corn to the United Kingdom at the seaboard, but the quantities were not given. Chicago handlers sold 7,000 bu. wheat; 77,000 bu. corn; 142,000 bu. oats and 3,000 bu. barley to the domestic trade with 25,000 bu. wheat and 50,000 bu. corn to go to store.

"Back me up with the Inquirer"

DEMANDED
THE PHILADELPHIA
SALES MANAGER

(SCENE: The General Sales Office of a corporation manufacturing a nationally known household commodity.)

CHARACTERS: The Executive Officers and District Sales Managers who have met to discuss sales and advertising plans for 1929.

The Philadelphia Sales Manager arises to speak.

"Gentlemen, the sales quota you have set for my district represents an increase of 20 per cent. It's possible—and it's reasonable.

"Philadelphia is prosperous—never more so in history. It is a city of homes—more than 450,000 of them. And—mark you—nearly half of these homes are owned by the people who live in them.

"Nowhere in the world will you find a more prosperous—and a more responsive group of people than you'll find in Philadelphia. They are the logical buyers of our product.

"Now as to advertising. I'll need a lot of it—all you can give me. And I want it in the newspaper that will carry our messages into the greatest number of Philadelphia's well-to-do homes.

"Gentlemen, THE PHILADELPHIA INQUIRER is that newspaper. No matter how you judge it—on coverage, pulling power, prestige or advertising lineage—the INQUIRER stands first in Philadelphia.

"Every week-day morning—before breakfast is served—the INQUIRER is delivered into 300,000 homes. On Sunday it reaches over half a million! It is the accepted shopping guide of more than 75 per cent of Philadelphia's housewives.

"And don't overlook this! The INQUIRER is the first choice of Philadelphia's own merchants. They know their market—and they know their newspapers. Isn't their decided preference for one newspaper a pretty good guide for us to follow?

"Back me up with the INQUIRER, Gentlemen; and I pledge you that the Philadelphia District will more than make good its quota."

The National advertiser who seeks to cover effectively the great, prosperous Philadelphia market—the third largest in the United States—must use the INQUIRER on his advertising schedule.

Proof of The Inquirer's Leadership

For the year 1928, The Inquirer continued its lead over all other Philadelphia newspapers in certain significant classes of advertising.

Montgomery Ward.

M. J. L. Montgomery, Ward & Co., Inc., experienced in 1928 the most successful year in its history in sales volume, in net profit, in organization and in plans for expansion, according to President Everett.

The better ratio of profit on its larger sales last year than in 1927 indicates that its new chain of retail stores has been adding to income as well as to volume of business.

The company had approximately 250 chain and retail department stores in operation at the end of 1928.

Additional common stock was held in the year to provide funds for further expansion in this line.

Earnings for the year are equivalent to $4.77 a share on the larger amount of common outstanding, on which dividends are to be paid at the $2.50 annual rate beginning Feb. 15, 1929.

Net sales for the year totaled $214,350,446, as compared with $186,632,340 for 1927.

Net profit of $17,705,325 for 1928 after all charges compares with $13,127,431 for 1927.

After dividends on the $7 class A stock, the net profit, based on common stock outstanding, the greater part of the year equals $14.28 a share in 1928, against $10.25 a share on that number of shares in 1927.

The $4.77 a share mentioned above was earned on the 3,410,983 shares outstanding at the close of the year.

After payment of all dividends, the surplus for the year was $9,917,649 in 1928, compared with $7,155,296 in 1927.

Total earned surplus stood at $45,597,006 at the end of 1928, against $35,630,257 at the end of 1927.

Current assets were $93,197,569 and current liabilities $17,193,792 at the end of 1928.

This left net working capital of $76,003,777, which compares with $44,660,537 at the close of 1927.

The common stock is high grade.

The class A stock is more so.

WORDS are weak when they attempt to compete with facts.

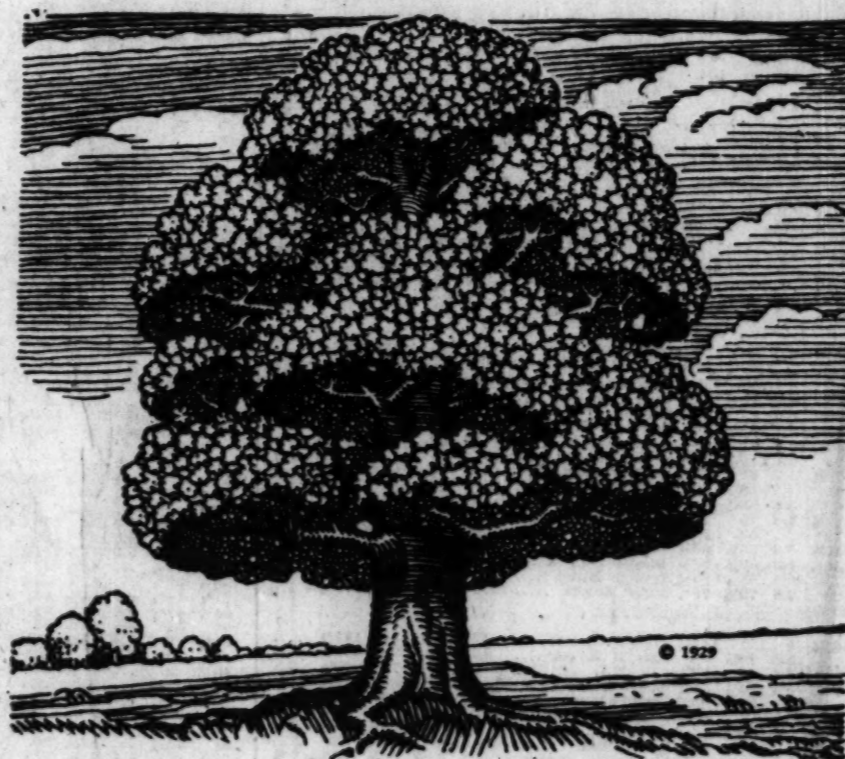

The Chrysler Motors story—past, present and future—yesterday, today and tomorrow—is a factual story, not an advertising story. Chrysler success is a matter of things which have happened and are happening—of a national and international state of mind more convincing by far than anything which could merely be said.

That state of mind expresses itself in the mind of the individual buyer—induces him to prefer a Chrysler Motors product for definite reasons of value.

He is not being urged or persuaded by what Chrysler Motors says of Chrysler but by what everyone says of Chrysler and, most of all, by what he himself thinks and sees and knows of Chrysler.

Whether it be Chrysler "75," "65" or Imperial—whether it be De Soto Six, Dodge Brothers or Plymouth—he finds perfectly plain, convincing reasons why it would pay him to prefer these particular cars in their particular fields.

And nearly always the motivating influence sifts and simmers down to these clinching and conclusive facts:

All branches on the same tree; all growing out of the Chrysler root principle of standardized quality

That he finds after scouring the fields far above them in cost that the new Chrysler "75," the new Chrysler "65" and the new Chrysler Imperial are better looking—and better value both in performance and in price.

That he finds the new De Soto Six in its particular field better looking—and better value both in performance and in price.

That he finds the new Dodge Brothers Senior and Dodge Brothers Six in their particular fields today are better looking—and better value both in performance and in price.

That he finds the new Plymouth in its particular field better looking—and better value both in performance and in price.

And when it comes to commercial vehicles he finds the new Fargo and the Dodge Brothers trucks, commercial cars, motor coaches and buses not alone better looking—essential in modern delivery—but better value both in performance (which means economy of upkeep and dependable service) and in price.

The reason is transparently plain and simple—that all of these products are fruits of the strength of Chrysler Motors—each contributing to every other in fineness of engineering and design—each helping the other to save in overhead—all issuing from the same skilled and scientific source, under the same personal directing head.

Chrysler Motors products are proving the tremendous advantages Chrysler Motors gives in attaining efficiencies and economies which make them all better looking and better value both in performance and in price.

CADILLAC

Special Display of Reconditioned Cadillac and La Salle

During Automobile Show Week we have on display at our Cadillac branches—which will be open both day and evening—a complete selection of reconditioned Cadillac and La Salle.

Cadillac-La Salle are supreme in the fine car field and they are built to last a lifetime. In a reconditioned model you receive superior performance and beauty in style and design that cannot be obtained in a new car selling at the same price.

May be purchased from the economical G. M. A. C. plan. Your present car in trade.

The following all carry our warranty. Your early inspection recommended.
